Library of Congress

Will Appear Before the Extradition Commissioner Today

Admits Identity, But Declares He Will Not Be Extradited

COMPANIONS ALSO DETAINED

Canada Charges Prisoners With "Being Under Suspicion of Having Committed an Offense in Friendly Nation."

Sherbrooke, Quebec, Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw, cut short in his flight from the State Hospital for the criminal insane, at Matteawan, N. Y., by arrest today at the village of St. Hermengilde, De Garford, just over the international line from New Hampshire, prepared in his cell in the county jail here tonight to fight against being sent back to the United States.

Charged With Bribery.

Thaw faces deportation on the ground that he is an undesirable alien and extradition on a warrant charging him with bribery. The warrant already issued in New York State on a charge of conspiracy will not suffice to extradite him, in the opinion of local authorities. These authorities received word tonight that the district attorney of Duchess county, in which Mateawan is located, was on his way here prepared to swear to a warrant charging Thaw with bribery—an extraditable offense—if necessary.

In his own defense Thaw claims he was merely passing through Canada on his way to Detroit, when his passage was interrupted by his arrest. He exhibited what he claimed to be transportation to Detroit in support of this claim and cited the case of Jack Johnson to bear out his contention that he cannot be sent back to the United States by Canadian authorities so long as he simply was passing through the country and intends to go beyond its borders.

District Attorney Conger, of Duchess county, New York, it is understood here, wants Thaw ordered deported and returned to the United States over that part of the international line touched by the State of New York. Thaw came into the Dominion from New Hampshire, however, and if custom is followed, he would go back to New Hampshire.

Held Under Immigration Act.

The Canadian immigration department at Ottawa wired the chief of police here this afternoon to hold Thaw under the immigration act, indicating that steps will be taken to deport him. This theory was made almost a certainty by the information that the department had sen two inspectors to Sherbrooke with instructions to watch the case, and institue proceedings to deport Thaw.

At Coaticook, where he was lodged in the lock-up immediately after his arrest, Thaw engaged a local lawyer. He was arraigned before Justice of Peace Dupuis. The justice read to him an indictment charging him with unlawfully escaping from Mateawan and without permitting a plea remanded him to jail at Sherbrooke for a hearing tomorrow.

Thaw Plans Bitter Fight.

There is every indication that Thaw intends to wage a bitter fight against extradition deportation or both.

From his cell in the county jail tonight he sent out to the newspaper men a statement under this caption, typewriten in capitals:

"No one has contended that for the two years, nearly, that Thaw has been in the Tombs he has been insane There is no evidence of delusion in the slightest degree on his part. Is it anything crazy to take a pistol to defend yourself against a man who calls you a d—— ——— —— and threatens to kill you before morning."

The statement itself was a printed synopsis of District Attorney Jerome's speech—or purported to be such—to the jury at Thaw's second trial.

Talks With Reporters.

After Thaw had spent some hours in his cell and grumbled a bit at his poor quarters, he was removed to the hospital where the accommodations are better. It was at his lawyer's suggestion that he consented to see reporters.

"Where did you intend to go after you left Matteawan?" he was asked.

"I may have been going home," he replied quickly. He was then asked:

"Do you care to say anything about threats you are said to have made you would to certain people once you were out of Matteawan?"

"I shall make no answer to the nonsense of that sort that has been printed," he replied. And ended the interview.

The photographers came next. They wanted a picture. Again Thaw balked. He could not consent to it—couldn't even consider it—until he put on a clean shirt and collar. He explained that he had had no opportunity to change his clothes since leaving Matteawan.

Thaw's two companions surpassed him in reticence. All the newspaper men could get was a description of each. One of them is five feet eight or nine inches tall, smooth faced with dark hair and eyes and heavy set. The other is about the same height, lighter in build and of fair complexion.

Coalcook, Que., Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw, who was arrested here early today, was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Dupey this afternoon and remanded to Sherbrooke jail. He will appear before Judge Mulvens, the extradition commissioner, probably tomorrow.

Thaw was arrested at Hermengilde-Garford, a village near here, an hour after he had been driven across the

PROBE M'MICHAEL'S STORY

Pawnbrokers Deny That Representative McDermott Was Paid to Work Against the "Loan Shark" Bill.

Washington, Aug. 19.—The House Lobby Investigating committee today continued to probe the statement of I. H. McMichael, former chief page of the House, that Representative James T. McDermott, of Illinois, had been given $7,500 to work against a "loan shark" bill for the District of Columbia by pawnbrokers affected by the bill.

Two of these brokers who contributed to a fund to be used against the bill denied that Mr. McDermott had even been asked to oppose its passage. They swore they raised about $3,750 for employment of attorneys and for presenting printed arguments to Congressmen. Isaac Heidenheimer, who gave 40 per cent of the total, said his acquaintance with Representative McDermott was slight, and his conversations with him about the loan bill were "only casual."

George D. Horning, leader of the trio of brokers, denied McMichael's statement that he, Representative McDermott, John J. McDermott and McMichael made an arrangement for the payment of $7,500 to Representative McDermott at a conference in New York in John McDermott's office. Horning said, however, that he did talk with John McDermott in New York about the legislation and thought the Illinois Congressman and McMichael were present.

Horning corroborated McMichael's statement that he sent $200 by express to Representative McDermott at Chicago and telegraphed him he had sent it. He said this was a loan and added that McDermott still owes him $1,000 loaned more than 18 months ago.

Heidenheimer and Horning agreed that part of the fund they raised to defeat the loan shark legislation went to the Democratic National campaign fund. Horning said he contributed $825 to the committee, and that $500 of this was taken from the common fund. He said National Committeeman Costello, of the District of Columbia, and Henry Morganthau in the Democratic headquarters in New York, had asked him for personal contributions and he thought a contribution might help with Democratic Congressmen. Horning said he made an unsuccessful effort to have some in Tammany Hall in New York to get friends of that organization in Congress to see that the Washington pawnbrokers got a hearing before the committee in charge of the loan bill. He did not remember whom he saw that was supposed to have the ear of Tammany Congressmen, but said he was "turned down" with the statement that "Tammany could not get into such a thing."

The committee will continue Horning's examination tomorrow.

MILLIONAIRE INDICTED.

Charged With Contributing to Delinquency of Two Girls.

Los Angeles, Aug. 19.—George H. Bixby, the Long Beach millionaire, indicted by the county grand jury several months ago on charges of having contributed to the delinquency of Irene Marie Brown Levy, and Helen Close Barker, was made defendant today in three damage suits, each for $50,000, and each brought by a girl.

The girls mentioned, and Jeannette Ellis were the plaintiffs. They asked damages on the ground that Bixby had committed "high crimes and misdemeanors against them."

Bixby's trial on the delinquency charges is scheduled to come up in the Superior Court September 11th.

OWEN OPPOSES THE CURRENCY BILL

May Balk President's Plan for Passage of Monetary Measure

CONFERENCE WITHOUT RESULT

Washington, Aug. 19.—Unexpected developments in regard to the currency reform legislation in the Senate today promised serious complications for President Wilson's plans for the passage of Democratic members of the Senate Currency committee. Chairman Owen, who has been considered one of the original framers of the bill now before the Democrats of the House, made it clear to his associates that he was opposed to several features of the bill, including the plan for 12 regional reserve banks, and that he would recommend important changes in the measure.

The result of the Senate conference has been to leave the currency situation entirely open tonight, so far as the Senate's probable action is concerned.

Senator Owen did not suggest a definite plan to his colleagues, but said he was opposed to the regional reserve bank plan, to the proposal to compel all National banks to enter the new Federal system, and to other features of the bill as it was introduced by Chairman Glass, of the House Currency committee.

The attitude of other Democrats on the Senate committee, including Senators Hitchcock, O'Gorman and Reed, is such as to indicate that there will be material changes in the administration measure if not a complete remodeling of it, before it comes to the Senate for action.

Several members of the committee tonight were inclined to the opinion that the Senate ultimately might be asked to consider some measure of a temporary character, similar to the bill recently introduced by Senator Lea, Democrat, which would amplify the Aldrich-Vreeland Emergency Currency law and so change its provisions as to bring a form of special currency within the reach of all National banks.

Senator Owen tonight said he believed the conferences to be held in the Senate and the changes that might be made in the Currency Reform plan would mean definite action upon currency legislation at the present Congress. Other Senators said if a law was passed it probably would be of a temporary character.

The change in the situation in the Senate came at a time when administration supporters were endeavoring to reconcile all elements among Democrats in the House caucus, and bring about a united support of the measure there.

Those who participated in today's committee conference declared tonight that no definite plans existed for the modeling of the Glass bill. The principles embodied in the Lea bill received much support from several Senators, however, and represent the character of legislation that many would like to see enacted. Under the Lea bill banks could organize local currency associations with a minimum membership of five banks and a minimum capital of $1,000,000 and could obtain currency from the Secretary of the Treasury on approved securities through sub-treasuries.

Democratic leaders in the House have virtually agreed that the administration bill now pending in the caucus shall be amended so as to specifically provide for the same re-discounting rights to paper based on warehouse receipts or other evidence of ownership of agricultural products as accorded commercial and industrial paper. Chairman Glass insists that the bill as drawn sufficiently provides for the credit of the farmer, but Speaker Clark, Democratic Leader Underwood, Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, and other leaders favor more specific and cleared language.

General debate on the bill will continue in the caucus tomorrow. Today Speaker Clark, Representative Palmer and Dies, of Texas, defended the bill, and Representative Sims, of Tennessee, Murray of Oklahoma, and Brockson, of Delaware, attacked it.

Mr. Clark "talked for the farmers." Mr. Palmer said the bill would increase the amount of the reserves to meet expanding business and would prevent contraction of credit.

Representative Eagle, of Texas, insurgent member of the House committee today introduced as a substitute for the administration currency bill a measure to provide $500,000,000 of United States notes, to be deposited by the United States with National Banking Associations under certain stipulated conditions.

STEAMER TURNS TURTLE.

Crew of 14 Believed to be Trapped in Cabin.

Keokuk, Ia., Aug. 19.—The government steamer Henry Bosse turned turtle in the Mississippi river off the Keokuk shore during a wind and lightning storm late this afternoon. A crew of 14 were on board at the time and they are believed to have been trapped in the cabin below the water line.

Danville, Va., August 19.—James R. Jopling, president of the First National Bank, and 40 years resident here, died today of cancer of the stomach, aged 68. He was a native of Bedford county, Confederate soldier at 17, and for years engaged in the hardware business in Lynchburg, Salem and Danville. A widow and one daughter survive.

CROWD IS DENIED EXPECTED THRILL

ASSEMBLY MEETS PEACEFULLY

Legislature Assembles Without Sensational Results—Both Sulzer and Glynn Are Unrelenting—Crowds Throng the Capitol.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Expectations that the re-convening of the Legislature today would be productive of spectacular developments in the muddle of the Governorship, failed of realization. Rumors that Acting Governor Glynn would submit a message bearing in some way on his official status drew large crowds to the capitol, but few members appeared.

In the ten minute session of the Assembly concurrent resolutions were introduced looking to the punishment for contempt in refusing to answer questions before the Frawley investigating committee of Louis A. Sarecky, Governor Sulzer's private secretary, during the gubernatorial campaign, and Frederick L. Colwell, who is alleged to have been Mr. Sulzer's "dummy" in certain stock transactions.

The judiciary committee was called upon to take action in charges affecting the integrity of the Assembly said to have been made by James C. Garrison.

The Senate transacted no business, both houses adjourning until tomorrow.

Most of Acting Governor Glynn's time was taken up by private conference with Democratic leaders who were saidto be advising him in thef ormulation of a definite programme.

Governor Sulzer's day was uneventful except for his appointment of a new commission to ascertain the metal condition of a patient confined in the Auburn State prison under sentence of death. Special significance attaches to this action from the fact that, however, the commission may find, it might open the door to court proceedings to test the validity of the Governor's act.

Governor Sulzer seemed unperturbed over the opinion of Attorney General Carmody unholding the contention that he is unlawfully exercising the functions of Chief Executive, pending the outcome of the impeachment proceedings. He preserved his policy of silence adopted since the impeachment proceedings were instituted.

Former Senator Edgar T. Brackett and Eugene Lamb Richards counsel for the Frawley committee, were designated special counsel to assist the Assembly managers of the impeachment trial at a meeting held this afternoon. It was said that additional counsel would be named tomorrow. The names of John B. Stanchfield and William Travers Jerome are mentioned most prominently in this connection. A statement issued by the Assembly managers says:

"The board wishes it known that it is extremely desirous that the proceedings shall be conducted in a full, fair and impartial manner.

"The proofs will be squarely presented to the high court of impeachment and the only issue is the guilt or innocence of the impeached Governor. Technicalities will not be indulged in by the managers. The trial must be full and free. The people are entitled to know, and will know the truth."

PULMOTOR SAVES LIFE.

Bather Resuscitated by Use of Instrument After an Hour.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 19.—Edward Loeb, son of the Director of the Department of Supplies of Philadelphia, was rescued in an unconscious condition off Ventnor by Joseph Tinny, this afternoon. The rescue was made before a big crowd and with high seas running. It took half an hour to revive Loeb.

Miss Winifred Wickersham of Philadelphia, was saved from drowning by Lifeguard Beyer this afternoon off Belmont avenue. She had gone out of sight 200 feet from shore. Beyer brought her up on his fifth dive. The pulmotor was used for nearly an hour before the girl was resuscitated.

Frank Levy, of Philadelphia, tried to swim around the steel pier this afternoon and became exhausted. He was unconscious when guards rescued him in a boat.

WILSON FREE SUGAR PROGRAM CARRIES

ALL AMENDMENTS DEFEATED

Only Two of the Senate Majority Oppose Plans of the President for Free Sugar in 1916 — Debate Devoid of Bitterness.

Washington, Aug. 19. — President Wilson's program for free sugar in 1916 carried the day in the Senate today, when Democrats rallied to the support of the Tariff bill, and defeated all amendments to the sugar schedule.

With all but Senators Ransdell and Thornton, of Louisiana, standing firmly for the administration measure, the Democrats defeated the Bristow amendment for a compromise duty; the Norris amendment against free sugar, and the Gallinger amendment against free maple sugar.

An amtndment to abolish immediately the Dutch standard color test for sugar was adopted during the fight. It was proposed by Senator Bristow, Republican, and accepted by Senators Simmons and Williams, Democratic managers of the bill.

The decision on the sugar schedule came at the end of a debate devoid of much of the bitterness that had been expected in connection with this fight.

Bristow Amendment Fails.

Senator Bristow's amendment would have established gradual reduction in duty from the present tariff of $1.90 per hunared pounds, until in six years the tariff would have been $1.27 1-2. Under the Cuban treaty this would have established a 97-cent tariff on Cuban sugar, which constitutes the bulk of the imports into the United States.

A hard fight was made for the Bristow amendment; but when finally forced to a vote, it was defeated, 39 to 34.

A subsequent motion by Senator Gallinger to strike out the provision to make maple sugar and glucose free of duty in 1916, was beaten, 37 to 35.

The proposal to put all cane and raw sugar on the free list in 1916, behind which President Wilson had mustered the Democratic majority after a long and persistent effort, came squarely before the Senate on a motion by Senator Norris, Republican, to strike out the feature of the bill. This was defeated by a viva voce vote, Senator Norris not demanding a roll call.

This proposal will come up again, when the bill has passed its present stage of consideration "in committee of the whole," and advances to the next reading in the Senate. When made again the motion undoubtedly will call for a record vote, but Democratic leaders tonight expressed confidence that they would still have a clear majority of at least one vote.

"Pairing Up" of Senators.

Senator Works is in California, and is not paired with any Democratic Senator. Nine Democrats were paired with nine Republicans on today's vote. With a further break in the Democratic ranks, the vote still would be 48 to 47, should all pairs be broken and all Senators return. Should the Democrats insist upon withdrawing existing pairs, teh advantage would be largely in their favor, as Senators Dupont and Root, Republicans, are in Europe; Senator Burleigh is ill, and Senator Works has indicated he does not expect to return to Washington for the tariff session.

Simmons' Plans.

Senator Simmons gave notice that he would offer further amendments to the Sugar schedule before the bill was approved, to make it clear that the existing sugar duty of $1.90 per 100 is to continue in force until the new rate of $1 per 100 becomes effective next March.

Action on the sugar schedule today was followed by a speeding up of the legislative machinery on remaining sections. Democratic leaders expressed confidence tonight that tariff revision would be greatly hastened within the next week. The fight over free wool is still to occur; but the success today on the sugar schedule was accepted as an indication of what will happen when wool is reached.

Before adjournment tonight the Senate had disposed of the schedule devoted to rates on spirits, wines and liquors, with the exception of that provision relating to the tax on fortified wines; and the cotton schedule was taken up and briefly debated, Senator Lippett attacking the proposed system of fixing ad valorem duties on thread and yarn, based on the trade number of the product.

35 CONTENDERS REMAIN.

For Title Honors in Singles at National Tennis Tournament.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 19.—Out of the field of 148 entrants for the all-comers singles championship in the 33rd annual tournament of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, there remain tonight but 35 contenders for the title.

Under fairly favorable playing conditions the elimination process was both rapid and without sensational upsets. Among the survivors are N. W. Niles, Alfred S. Dadney, W. M. Washburn, R. Norris Williams, 2nd; William M. Johnston, S. H. Voshell, M. E. McLoughlin, J. R. Strachan, T. C. Bundy, W. J. Clothier, Dean Mathey, Robert LeRoy, Wallace F. Johnson, and Richard Palmer. The ranking players came through true to form.

NOTED MEXICAN REVOLUTIONIST

GENERAL EMILLIANO ZAPATA.

Administration Officials Are Hopeful, Though Somewhat Puzzled.

Huerta Denies Report of Ultimatum Demanding Recognition.

LIND HOLDING CONFERENCES

Washington, Aug. 19.—Hopeful, though somewhat puzzled by the day's developments, administration officials anxiously awaited tonight the receipt of the Huerta government's complete reply to the American communication presented by John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico.

A summary from Mr. Lind giving briefly the Huerta government's rejection of the American proposals.

About 1,000 words of the text of the Huerta reply reported to be 7,000 words long.

A message from Mr. Lind stating that he had been in conference at an early hour today with Provisional President Huerta, that the interview had been cordial and was brought at the suggestion of Huerta himself.

A denial from Charge O'Shaughnessy authorized by Provisional President Huerta, declaring there was no truth in the report of an ultimatum demanding recognition by the United States.

Information Disconnected.

This information coming in disconnected cipher messages which administration officials themselves confessed some difficulty in understanding, was given to members of the Senate committee on foreign relations, Republicans as well as Democrats, and had the effect of staving off debate on the Mexican question following sensational reports of a threatened severance of relations by the Huerta government.

Officials, though somewhat skeptical of the outcome of the present negotiations, took the view that nothing could be done by the United States, at least until Mr. Lind actually concluded his parleys with Huerta and his cabinet, with whom the American envoy has established pleasant unofficial relations.

One thing which confused the situation today was the fact that only the first part of the Huerta, note rejecting the American proposal had been received. This was couched in cordial terms, setting forth the reasons why mediation or outside interference is impossible of acceptance by the Huerta administration. It cited particularly that the pride of the Mexican people could not brook the settlement of an internal controversy at foreign hands, but the principal argument was not reached in this installment of the document. In the meantime news that subsequently Mr. Lind had resumed negotiations with Huerta, inspired a feeling of hope that something tangible might result from the inter-change of views.

Undercurrent of Skepticism.

There was an undercurrent of skepticism among some officials, however, who were inclined to credia Senor Urrutia, Mexican Minister of the Interior, with the responsibility for the reports published today that recognition had been demanded of the United States with a threat of severing relations between the two countries. At the White House and State Department the denial by Provisional President Huerta was accepted.

Reports of Friction.

Reports of friction in the Huerta cabinet were current and Urrutia's alleged declarations were cited in official circles as possible evidence of friction. It was pointed out that Urrutia had issued the first statement declaring that Mr. Lind would not be received unless he brought credentials recognizing the Huerta government. This position later was repudiated, not only by Frederico Gamboa, minister of Foreign Relations, but by Provisional President Huerta as well, both of whom received Mr. Lind and since expressed themselves in complimentary terms concerning his personality, though at the outset, Mr. Lind informed them he did not bring recognition of the Huerta government.

Huerta May Resign.

It is believed here in some quarters that Provisional President Huerta has practically decided to resign in favor of Senor Gamboa, with the intention of being a candidate in the coming elections. No direct statement has come to the State Department at any time that Huerra would not be a candidate, though the informal understanding here has been that he would not.

With the country up in arms against his regime, it is generally doubted here that Huerta could be elected. The suggestion that a Mexican commission composed of representatives of both factions might conduct the election after Senor Gamboa has been made Provisional President had been advanced in Latin-American circles here.

Want Embargo Removed.

Constitutional representatives here do not think anything definite will result from the present negotiations and are pleading for a removal of the American embargo on arms. Given permission to buy munitions of war, they promise an early termination of hostilities.

Discretionary power is vested in President Wilson to issue permits for the exportation of arms, and with the

MOTHER SAYS NANCE INSANE

"They'll Never Take His Life" Declares Aged Mrs. Nance, Mother of Man Who Slew His Wife, at Hamlet.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—Confident that no jury ever will vote to execute her son, Geo. S. Nance, on a charge of wife murder, his mother, Mrs. Ellen Nance, of 34 Seaton, Northwest, sat today watching for a mail carrier or a telegraph boy to bring her word from Rockingham, where Nance is confined.

"They'll never take his life," said the aged mother today. "I don't fear that at all, for he's not in his right mind. All they'd think of doing would be to send him to the sanitarium."

Mrs. Nance's other son, Charles, a navy yard employe, has gone to North Carolina to look after the interests of George Nance. Consequently the anxious mother is waiting for some word as to the date for the trial. She hopes that he will have an examination this week, for she is confident that will mean his commitment to an asylum.

Settle Laurinburg Postoffice.

Action of a definite nature will be taken in the Laurinburg postmastership within the next 48 hours, it is believed. E. L. Russell, whom Representative Page recommended for the place, is being held up at the Postoffice Department at the request of Senator Simmons. The senior Senator wants his man James appointed, but it is pretty well certain that Russell will eventually land the job.

Representative Faison has introduced a bill appropriating $60,000 for a Federal building at Morehead City. No action will be had on the bill at this session of Congress, as only tariff and currency will be handled until the regular session meets in December. P. R. A.

BROTHER AT ROCKINGHAM.

Charles T. Nance Arrives From Washington to Assist Wife-Slayer.

Rockingham, Aug. 19.—Charles T. Nance, an employee of the Navy Department in Washington, arrived here today to look after the interests of his brother, George S. Nance, who is in jail here charged with the murder of his wife in the Seaboard Hotel, at Hamlet, last Friday night.

In talking of his brother Charles T. Nance says the man has not been right mentally since a nervous breakdown which occurred to him four years ago in California. He told at some length of the actions of his brother, which tended to show mental incompetency during recent years.

Nance does not appear to realize that he killed his wife, but speaks only of the shock of her death. Charles T. Nance expresses the belief that if his brother realizes that he has killed his wife he will become even worse mentally and will never recover.

Charles T. Nance will remain here for some time in an effort to secure counsel and see the defense of his brother well started. The trial will come up during the November term of Richmond county court. A plea of insanity is believed to be the course of the defense.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 19.—The Bulgarian government was officially informed today that the European powers are considering measures to compel Turkey to respect the treaty of London.

PIRATES EVEN MATTERS UP

Made It Two-Two With Giants—Phils Dropped Fourth Straight—Suggs Pitched One-Hit Game for Reds—Cards Won.

The Pittsburg Pirates evened up matters with the Giants by taking yesterday's fourth game of the series by an 8 to 3 score. Johnny Murray, named for McGraw, John J., featured the game with a sensational one-hand catch in the eighth inning, nipping a Pirate score.

The Chicago Cubs took their fourth straight from the Phillies, the score being 3 to 2. Pierce, for the Cubs, was very effective with the exception of one weak inning. Tom Seaton, for the Phils, allowed only eight hits, frequent misplays by the team aiding in tossing the game.

The Brooklyn Flatbushers fought gamely but were unable to take the third game of the series with the St. Louis Cardinals. The visitors winning by a 5 to 2 score. A local rally in the eighth netted two runs, but the final inning went runless.

The Cincinnati Reds took both ends of a double-header from the Boston Braves, George Johnson and George Suggs doing wonderful mound duty. In the opener the Winnebago Brave, who cost the Cincinnati club not even the price of a shave in a five cent barber shop, held the Beaneaters to five scattered hits, winning his game 4 to 2, despite four glaring errors behind him. In the latter event the Tar Heel pitched a one-hit game, and struck out four of the batsmen to face him, winning 2 to 0. The Cincinnati club has recently asked for waivers on Suggs, but yesterday's performance may cause Tinker to start thinking along a different line. Suggs has had a bad season, but bids fair to again develop into the form that he showed during the 1912 season, when he was the mainstay of the Reds in a hopeless pennant chase.

John Murray.

New York, Aug. 19.—Pittsburg evened the series with New York today by taking the fourth game 8 to 3. A sensational one-handed catch by Murray in the eighth inning was a feature.

Flatbushers Fight.

Brooklyn, Aug. 19.—St. Louis won from Brooklyn here today by a score of 5 to 2. The locals rallied in the eighth and scored their only runs, but were unable to overcome the lead of the visitors.

St. Louis	010	103	000—5 10 2
Brooklyn	000	000	020—2 7 2

Perritt, Sallee and Wingo; Reulbach, Ragon and Miller and W. Fischer; time 1:40; umpires Rigler and Byron.

Allen Champion Hard Luck Hurler

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 19.—With all your Rob Russels and Joe Boehlings and Clark Griffiths predictions that left handers are the twirling "comers," we have over here in this burg a a young southpaw who on paper measures up with Russell and Boehling, and, in fact, any other partsider in the business. Yet according to George Moreland, this said youngster has won three and lost thirteen games.

They say that figures lie, but it takes other figures to prove that the lost and won columns do not convey the whole truth in this case. Even if this young gentleman, Frank Allen, has the unenviable percentage of .195 in the league tablets, he has yielded only an average of 2.9 runs per game and has allowed 39 runs and 86 hits in 117 2-3 innings.

Look up other twirlers' records, barring Walter Johnson, and you will find that very few have an average as low as 2.9 runs per game to their credit.

BIG WAVE KILLS BATHER.

Man With Weak Heart Struck in the Chest and Dies in Surf.

Wildwood, N. J., Aug. 19.—Struck in the chest by a big wave as he entered the surf today with a young woman, Samuel Hopkinson, of No. 5220 North Second street, Philadelphia, died almost instantly, the shock proving too much for a weak heart. As he fell, his companion fainted. Both were brought to the beach, where she was revived.

COBB VS. JACKSON

Jackson and Cobb each lost two points in Monday's games, Jackson getting only one hit in five trips up, dropping to .392, while Cobb in four trips had one safe hit to his credit:

	G.	AB.	R.	H.	Ave.
Jackson	111	393	85	154	.392
Cobb	84	284	48	109	.384

FIRST DAY'S RACING.

Salem, N. H., Aug. 19.—The half-mile track horses had the programme to themselves at Rockingham Park today where the first day's Grand Circuit meet opened. All three events, two of them $2,000 stakes, were for the campaigners on the half mile circuits. The 2:24 trot had a field of 12, the largest which has started on the Grand Circuit this season, and was won in straight heats by Peter Sims, driven by C. W. Lasell, of Whitinsville, Mass.

Lew Perkins, a member of the Lasell stables last season, had it all his own way in the 2:17 pacing stake.

The 2:10 pacers put up the hottest contest of the day, the first three heats being won by different horses. It finally was won by Add F., driven by Lester Dore.

TO HOLD CAUCUS.

To Discuss Appointment of Henry D. Clayton as Senator from Alabama.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Democratic members of the Senate will caucus probably tomorrow night, to discuss the situation, which has arisen through the appointment of Henry D. Clayton to succeed the late Senator Johnston, of Alabama.

Friends of Mr. Clayton who upheld the right of Governor O'Neal to appoint Senator Johnston's successor without authority from the Legislature have asked for a party conference in which "to talk things over", arrangements had been made for a caucus tonight, but late today those interested asked that it be deferred until tomorrow night.

It was believed today that Mr. Clayton's credentials would not be presented to the Senate until after the proposed caucus. Many Senate Democrats still are outspoken in their opinion that the appointment by Governor O'Neal was not legal, owing to the language of the new amendment to the constitution. The conference, it is said, will not bind the Democratic members to any course of action.

SIX BILLS BY FAISON.

Congressman from Third District Has Several Propositions.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Representative Faison introduced six bills today for surveys of navigable waters and cemetery improvement in North Carolina. His propositions are:

Repairs and improvement of roadway to National cemetery at Newbern, $20,000.

Survey of proposed canal from navigable waters of Goose creek fito Jones bay, in Pamlico county, with a view to a shipcanal from Pamlico river to Jones bay, depth of eight feet at low water and width of 100 feet or more $3,000.

Survey of Neuse river between Newbern and Goldsboro, to deepen channel and improve navigation, no appropriation fixed.

To provide for two terms of United States District Court for Eastern District of North Carolina annually, at Goldsboro, on the first Mondays in March and October.

To appropriate $5,000 for equipping and maintaining a weather observatory at Newbern.

To erect a $10,000 monument to General James Moore, at Moore's Creek Battleground. General Moore served in the Continental army.

The Fancy Priced Player Usually Proves a Lemon

Less than a month ago Owner Comiskey, of the Chicago White Sox, created a mild and modest furore in baseball circles by the announcement of the purchase of Outfielder Larry Chappelle from Milwaukee, at an outlay of $21,000, more or less. Now cometh the angel of the immaculate hoselings with a cry that he was bumblebeed on the deal.

It developed that the luxuriant Larry beat it to the bizarre belt with a maimed hock as one of the requisites. Consequently he has been about as valuable to the Callahans in their pennantward flight as a 12-inch buzz fan in a Texas tornado. But despite the Chappelle bunko, for such it has been to date, the money men of the majors continue to extricate themselves from princely sums for promising minor league talent, which may or may not come up to expectations.

Frank Farrell, millionaire owner of the New York Yankees, is the latest to qualify for membership in this unique and opulent order. Last week the former turfman enriched the Baltimore strong box to the extent of $17,000, receiving for said enriching Outfielder Fred Maisel, the Oriole's star. Whether this Maisel will develop into a blossom of rare fragrance or an odoriferous bloomer is something that mortal man knoweth not.

But while on the subject of fancy priced artisans we fain would humbly inquire: "Why do the pastiming birds in the gilded cage always fall down when they fly from the bush to the larger brush?" Should it prove a fact that Chappelle—price tag $21,000—and Maisel—sale tag $17,000—prove bloomers next season, it will not be recorded as an unusual occurrence, but rather as the usual result of sensational bargaining.

Just why this is, no man knows, but the fact remains that few of the gilded gladiators prove shining lights in the majors. Train your lamps upon this lay-out: Russell Blackbourne cost $10,000; Rube Marquard cost $11,000; Lefty Russell cost $12,000; Fred Maisel cost $17,000; Larry Chappelle cost $21,000, and Marty O'Toole cost $22,500. Truly an appalling figure when one thinks of a Cobb that cost a trifle over $500, a Speaker that brought little more, a Collins that cost absolutely nothing, and a Barry that meant no expenditure of money.

While Marty O'Toole, the highest priced player in captivity, has proven a fairly dependable man with Pittsburg, it's a diamond tiara to a petrified pickle that Barney Dreyfus could not get $25,000 for the pitcher in the busy marts of baseball today. Of the entire lot of fancy priced pastimers, Marquard alone has proven a real star, and we all remember how long it took the ungainly Rube to come into his own.

Take a peek at their histories: Marquard's work attracted the attention of the late John T. Brush and he sought the portsider—paid $11,000 for him. Rube struck the main burg and straightway reams of copy went through the press about the southsider, and then—bing!

Rube failed dismally for two years. Had the stuff—no question about that—but lacked control. Two Springs ago Rube came south with the Giants. In the McGraw entourage was one of the brainiest catchers who ever wore a big mit, Wilbert Robertson. The veteran took personal charge of his Rubelets, put him through a course of sprouts, nursed his delivery along with tender care. And there was more reams of copy sent through the press. Rube arrived and is here to stay.

W. JOHNSON'S THIRTEENTH

Walter Johnson, the eighth wonder of the world, the man who has ruined more batting averages than any living pitcher, hung up his 13th consecutive victory yesterday afternoon, pitching a 10-inning game against the Cleveland Naps, and opposing Cy Falkenburg, the noted come-back pitcher of the Clevelanders. Walter held the Naps to seven well sprayed out hits, allowed no scoring after the opening session.

The Athletics, after a three-day losing streak, resumed operations yesterday by winning from the Detroit Tigers in a loosely played game, the score being 4 to 3. Hall, in the seventh inning, collided with a runner and injured his ankle, and a foul tip from Hall's bat disabled Lapp in the fourth.

The Chicago White Sox took their second straight game from the Boston world champions, in a game featured by Manager Carrigan's banishment for disputing a decision. Ray Collins for the Red Sox, opposed Cicotte, for the White Sox, the latter allowing only six hits.

Johnson's Thirteenth.

Cleveland, Aug. 19.—Walter Johnson pitched his 13th straight victory for Washington here today, downing Cleveland in a contest that went ten innings. The score was 5 to 1.

Cleveland	100	000	0000—1 7 1
Washington	000	010	0004—5 13 1

Falkenberg and Carish; Johnson and Ainsmith; time 2:15; umpires Evans and Hildebrand.

NO TYPHOID AT A. & M. COLLEGE

U. S. Surgeon and Local Physicians Declare no Local Cause for Fever Among Students Last Term.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 19.—Dr. J. R. Ridlon, surgeon of the United States Department of Health, here several weeks making a detailed investigation of conditions at the A. and M. College, that might give rise to the several cases of typhoid fever that developed among students after they left the college this spring, has reached the conclusion tha tthere is no source of such contamination anywhere about the college and that the health of the students is as completely safeguarded as possible.

Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, and Dr. H. McKee Tucker, physician for the college, are of the same opinion and those who contemplate sending their sons to this college this Fall are assured that there is not the slightest reason for hesitating.

James H. Pou is to award the contract September 15th for the installation of there miles of water mains and two miles of sewer pipe in Bloomsbury a thriving suburb of Raleigh that Mr. Pou is developing quite successfully.

Convicts on Highway.

Twenty-seven convicts have just been sent from the State's prison here to Hickory Nut Gap to work on the turnpike there and 18 are being transferred from the South Atlantic and Western railroad to this Hickory Nut Gap work, since the Council of State has cut the South Atlantic and Western out of convict aid in road construction. This gives 45 convicts for Hickory Nut Gap at once and the number will be increased to 50 right away to build the seven mile link of the Charlotte-Asheville highway.

It is an interesting fact that there are 100 convicts at work on the Raleigh, Charleston and Southern railroad, near Norwood, Stanly county. There are 30 at work on the Watauga railroad, about the same number on the Elkin and Alleghany and on the Statesville Air Line, building toward Mount Airy, and 425 on the State farm, leaving about 90 in the central prison here.

Wilmington Map Co.

The Troy Knitting Mill Co., of Troy, Montgomery county, was chartered today with $100,000 capital authorized and $25,000 subscribed by J. C. Hurley, B. W. Allen and others for a knitting and general cotton milling business. There ar ealso charters for the Southern Map Co., of Wilmington capital $20,000 authorized and $4,000 subscribed by H. deW. Rapalje, J. A. Loughlin and O. C. Filyaw, for making maps, plans of all kinds, printing lithographing and other work. And the Brown's Grove Congregational Church, of Back Creek, Randolph county. The corporation has no capital and is for general church purposes.

The North Carolina Supreme Court convenes August 25th for the Fall term and the indications are for a class of applicants for law license that will be only an average, if not below the average, in the numbers undertaking the examination. It is thought that there will be about 50 students from the University of North Carolina, Wake Forest and Trinity, undertaking the examination and there may be 25 others.

All idea of moving the court into the new quarters in the quarter million dollar State building, just being completed has been given up and there is considerable question now about the moving of the court being accomplished before January, as there is insistenc that the work of the court could not bear the disturbing and disorganizing effect of moving in the midst of a term. However, all this will be settled a little later.

The work has begun on the enw $40,000 central heating plant for the State buildings and this is expected to be completed within 60 days. The State House and all the State buildings are to be connected with the heating plant and all the other old plants for individual buildings done away with.

BORDEAUX HELD FOR COURT.

Negro Who Claims Self Defense Goes to Grand Jury.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Aug. 19.—The verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Shade Carr was that the deceased came to his death as the result of pistol wounds inflicted by Logan Bordeaux, and recommended that Bordeaux be held for court.

Justice W. M. Hand held a preliminary examination of Bordeaux Saturday and released him in the sum of $50. It was evidently a case of justifiable homicide.

Reports of crop conditions around here that come in from the farmers are very encouraging, much more so than was to have been expected earlier in the season. It appears that there will be an unusually good crop of corn and peanuts, with cotton not so good on account of a bad stand. Sweet potatoes are also said to be promising. Peavine hay and forage crops are looking well as the season has been just right for them.

The contractor has begun on the steam heating plant at the school house and if nothing interferes, will likely have it ready by the time school opens the first of September.

The town officials have commenced work on the streets again and by the use of plows and the road machine, are putting the streets in fine shape. If the overseers on the county roads would only use a machine like the one in use here, they would soon have the roads in good shape and could easily keep them so.

C. E. McCullen, Esq., E. McMoore, Jr., Miss Douglass Hand and Miss Geneva Moore went down by automobile to Pender Beach Monday to join the party that left here last Wednesday. They are reported as having a fine time with the exception of mosquitoes and sand flies.

Our new postmaster has changed the hour of opening the office in the morning to a much earlier time than formerly prevailed, which is very gratifying to the patrons of the office.

Capt. R. P. Paddison, of Point Caswell, made one of his flying trips to Burgaw today.

The location of the Confederate monument here is still unsetled, but it is hoped that the matter may be settled in a satisfactory manner very shortly as the monument is ready to be erected and the contractor is only waiting for the site to be agreed on.

Mr. Brewster Myers, wife and baby, of Tampa, Fla., are visiting Mr. Myers' father, Mr. J. M. Myers. They will spend a couple of weeks.

Wrightsville Beach

Included in the arrivals at the Hanover Inn yesterday were D. F. Rogers, Atlanta; W. J. Galloway, Hamlet; M. P. Dands, Durham.

Among those registered at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday were E. F. Phillips and W. S. Johnson, Lucama; A. E. Robertson and Dr. A. E. Burnett, Camden, S. C.

Miss Lula H. Briggs, of Raleigh, after spending two weeks at the Seashore Hotel, returned to her home this week.

Postmaster and Mrs. H. McL. Green have moved to their cottage on the beach where they will spend the remainder of the Summer.

Yesterday afternoon's Charlotte Chronicle: "Miss Katherine Lynch has returned from Wrightsville Beach, where she was a guest at the Northrop Cottage for some time."

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McDonald and daughter, Miss Sallie Cobb Johnson, who have been guests at the Seashore Hotel for several weeks, have returned to their home in Atlanta.

Yesterday's Winston-Salem Journal: "Col. and Mrs. J. C. Bessent, accompanied by their niece, Miss Edna Cummings, left yesterday morning for a stay at Wrightsville Beach."

The usual Labor Day exercises will be held at Wrightsville Beach Monday, September 1st. The programme is now being arranged by the Tidewater Power Company and General Secretary J. B. Huntington, of the Y. M. C. A.

Yesterday's Fayetteville Observer: "Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Buckingham have returned from a stay at Wrightsville Beach. Mr. Buckingham also paid a visit last week to Raleigh and the State Farm, in his capacity as a director of the Prison Board."

Misses Ruth Haynes and Edith Bowron, of Birmingham, Ala. who have been staying at the Seashore Hotel the past two weeks, will return to their home this afternoon. They have made many friends during their short stay who will regret their departure.

Tonight a souvenir dance will be given at Lumina complimentary to the Junior Order of American Mechanics, who are holding their annual convention at the Seashore Hotel. It is expected that a large crowd will attend.

With the large number of regular guests the arrivals yesterday for the annual convention of the State Council of the Junior Order filled the hotels almost to overflowing. The beach presented an animated appearance last night and the hotel lobbies were alive with people.

After spending several weeks at the Seashore Hotel Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Jarnigan and little daughter, Erskine, will return today to their home in Atlanta. Dr. Jarnigan is an enthusiastic angler and may return to the beach in September when the fishing season is at the best.

With the several hundred delegates now in attendance upon the annual convention of the Junior Order the Seashore Hotel is crowded to its utmost capacity. Manager Edgar L. Hinton states that he has received many reservations for the next ten days which assures a large number of guests during the remainder of August.

As usual, there will be three reels of moving pictures at Lumina tonight. This additional attraction is very popular at Lumina and crowds gather every night to enjoy the interesting pictures. The selections for tonight are "Drink's Lure", a drama by the Biograph Company; a Western drama by the Essanay Company entitled "Where the Mountains Meet", and a Lubin comedy "Training a Tightwad."

Among the arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday were R. Y. McPherson, Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sorrell, N. M. Hill and W. K. Guin, Durham; S. W. Anderson, Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Rowland, Rocky Mount; Sam F. Vance and family, Winston-Salem; Hugh Scott, Greensboro; G. M. Scott, Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bessent, Winston-Salem; J. W. Maddox Durham; N. L. Eure, Greensboro; W. O. Sapp, L. C. McKaughan and H. A. Cumber, Winston-Salem.

Among last night's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Raker, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wade, Elon College; D. T. Perkins, Wilson; J. M. Baity, Efland, W. A. Baines, J. D. Bissette, Nashville; B. R. Spencer, Roper; W. E. Lassiter, Lasker; J. P. Bradshaw, Swepsonville; G. L. B. Perry, R. L. Perry, Raleigh; B. M. Cheek, Saxaphaw; L. E. Richard, E. G. WILL INVITE JUNIORS.

Charlotte Wants the Next Meeting of the State Council.

The Charlotte Chronicle of yesterday afternoon had the following that will interest the visiting Juniors:

"Another big convention is now on the list of Charlotte's convention month next May, if the plans of local people are successful. The Grand Council for North Carolina of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, is in session this week at Wrightsville Beach, and representatives of the three councils of the order located in Charlotte will present an invitation to the grand body to hold its meeting here next year during the month of May.

"There are in Charlotte 250 active members of the organization which numbers its membership roll in the State of North Carolina as over 35,000. The representatives who would be present at such a gathering would number several hundred to be added to the list of visitors in the Queen City during convention month. N. L. Eure, a member of the Greensboro bar, is Grand Councillor for the State."

FINE CROPS IN BRUNSWICK.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Aug. 19.—Mr. M. C. Guthrie, who has just returned from a trip through the four lower townships of Brunswick county, tells your correspondent he has never seen such fine crops of corn, cotton and hay in this section before. The forage crops are also fine, and the farmers are getting in position, when they will make all their own corn and hay, and not buy from the West. The decline in the price of turpentine is responsible for more and better farming that is now taking place, and farmers are learning the value of making home supplies.

Mr. Guthrie, who is county superintendent of education, reports an increased educational interest among both white and colored. Also in Waccamaw township there is active road building, the material being found along the road in the shape of good clay. Road work is also being done between the Lockwoods Folly river and Shallotte and beyond, this being the road for which bonds were recently sold. Not least important, the health of the people is better than usual this Summer.

Any household that did not have mullets for super last night was the exception, for the first mullet "catch" of the season was made off Caswell beach, and the haul was 2,500 pounds. The mullet has not yet attained its good growth and richness that comes in the Fall catches.

Miss Esther Crockett, who has been visiting her father, Capt. F. P. Crockett, of the steamer Gen. Getty, during the Summer, returns to Brooklyn, N. Y., this week.——Prof. Robert Ranson and family arrived this week from Charlotte. Prof. Ranson will be at the head of the High School here during the coming year.

Mr. Harry Mintz, a former Southport boy, now living in Jacksonville, Fla., is here visiting relatives.——Mr. Henry Cool, of Cleveland, O., who is interested in farm lands near here, has been a visitor during the past week.

This county can furnish one of those "farm for an automobile" stories, that are common throughout the country. In this case, taken with the auto fever, a young farmer borrowed money to buy a car, placing a mortgage, not upon the homestead, but upon some farm property, relying upon his earnings to take up the mortgage when due. But these failed, the land was advertised for sale, the day of sale came, and the young man, his wife, father and mother, all in an auto, hastened to get to town before the sale was made. But fortune did not favor, the car got out of order on the way in, and when the family reached the court house door the farm had been sold.

The "greatest" fox hunt is promised to be pulled off here within a few days. That is, the hunters are on the way from up-country, there is a good sized pack of hounds in the outfit and the hunters are to camp out, living in tents while here. What the fox mortality will be remains to be reported.

EDITORIALS BURNED.

Cat Kicked Over Lamp and Destroyed the Square Deal's Thoughts.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston N. C., Aug. 19.—A playful kitten spoiled a week's work for George C. Jones, editor of the Snow Hill Square Deal, known as the most eccentric newspaper of this section, last night. Jones had gathered together the material for the editorial page of the week's edition, and was busy with his final effort when the cat leaped upon his desk. Since fire destroyed the electric plant in his town the editor has had to depend upon a kerosene lamp for light to prepare his odd editorials. When the cat stalked upon Jones' dissertation upon the immorality of the split skirt the scribe lifted it to fondle the little feline. The cat's nose came into contact with the business end of Jones' cigar, gave a howl and kicked out with both hind legs, knocking the lamp over and setting fire to several thousand words intended to amuse and edify the readers of the Square Deal tomorrow. The editor has but one arm, and before he could squech the flames the damage was complete and irreparable.

About 200,000 pounds of tobacco was sold here today at the opening of the market. This was a fair break. Prices averaged well and the product graded good as a whole. The weed was brought from several counties by planters who wanted to "test" the market. More than this would have been sold were it not for the fact that the farmers have not all finished preparing their crops, and it will be several weeks before the sales reach their zenith. The season for selling here lasts about six months, and before the close of the market over 12,000,000 pounds are expected to be handled.

Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases opened here yesterday with an unusually large docket. There are more than 140 cases, and more than 400 witnesses are summoned. Judge O. H. Allen, of this city, is presiding. The one case of especial interest is that of State against James Underhill and Joe Tisdale young white men, for the killing of Carlisle Heath, son of a prominent family of Kinston, several months ago. This trial will not be reached until the end of the week probably.

HUNDRED KILLED AND HURT.

Car of Dynamite Explodes in Suburb of Mexico City in Collision.

Mexico City, Aug. 19.—An explosion on a gondola loaded with dynamite on the tracks of a street car company in a thickly settled portion of Tacubaya, a suburb of the capital, killed or injured more than 100 persons, chiefly women and children, early this morning. Thirty bodies already have been taken from the ruins. Scores of wounded are lying in the streets. ing. Fifty bodies already have been caused by a car loaded with iron pipe crashing into the dynamite car.

For a radius of 500 feet from the scene of the explosion not a house was left intact and not a vestige of many of the buildings remained. Most of the dwelling were of adobe construction and those nearest to where the car stood were converted into heaps of clay and dust under which it is estimated scores of victims will be found.

The persons killed belonged for the most part to the laboring class. Most of the victims met death in the coldapse of the houses.

The explosion occurred at 7 o'clock when most of the men had left for work. Squads of laborers were soon burrowing into the ruins and harrowing scenes occurred as one after another of the victims were brought to light.

Many fine residences in Tacubaya, and in the connecting town of San Pedro, were partially wrecked. Windows of buildings a mile away were broken.

Tacubaya lies in the direction of Santa Fe, where the government powder factory is located. At first it was believed the explosion had occurred there and rumors of an attack by Zapata rebels caused much apprehension.

LAWYER'S BATTLE.

Yesterday's Session in Frank Trial Devoid of Sensation.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 19.—Today's session of the trial of Leo M. Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan was almost a continuous debate between Attorneys. The State beginning its rebuttal, encountered multiple objections from the defense as to the competency of testimony it sought to introduce, and the jury was frequently retired while lawyers indulged in long arguments. Practically no points of importance were raised by either side.

A number of witnesses testified briefly in corroboration of minor details of the State's case. Little evidence of interest was produced.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

Wednesday, August 20, 1913.

Those who find fault find something of little value anywhere.

Harry Thaw's escape was sufficiently dramatic to entitle him to a place in vaudeville.

Those people who "fight" for their rights generally get them. Live people generally have few complaints to make.

The Georgia Legislature having adjourned, efforts will be made to ascertain if it earned its pay from the State.

The International Magazine asks, "Has the Progressive party come to stay?" No, it is not even going to stay.

The worst thing about Thaw's getaway will be that sensational newspapers will print Evelyn's picture and go into all the details again.

Governor Foss has gone back to the Republican party again, but the probability is that the Republicans regard him as a casual visitor only.

If it can be grown anywhere, it can be grown better in Eastern North Carolina—happy land of multifarious opportunities, potential possibilities and versatile resources.

Governor Sulzer's new slogan is "No surrender to buccaneers." That is almost sufficient to enlist the sympathy of Senator Tillman who never could stand for a buccaneer of any description.

It is estimated that the corn crop will be the lowest for several years. Drought in some of the Western States has cut short the prospects, and little dependence can be put in the Northwest where early frost generally catch the crop. In the South, where there is no such danger, the crop is not large enough to make up for the loss. Nevertheless, it emphasizes the advantage of the South for corn growing.

Says the Charleston Post: "Two more counties of South Carolina have been removed from the cattle tick quarantine area. That is real progress." Two-thirds of the counties of North Carolina are now tick free and are thus relieved from the handicap which the quarantine places on their cattle raising industry. It is understood that the industry, as a result, is growing and full of promise for the future. Thus we are going to make the most of one of our greatest natural resources.

Senator Tillman made a speech Monday in opposition to woman suffrage. "It is a beautiful dream," he said, "that female suffrage will purify politics. The vital and important thing for us to consider is the effect on women themselves. We can better afford to have degraded and corrupt politicians than degraded and bad women." The Senator takes it for granted that politics will make women bad just as it has made men bad. Politics will not make men or women bad, but bad men and bad women will make politics bad.

"Here is an accusation brought by the Charlotte News, which the Wilmington Star should answer at once, the News saying: 'The Wilmington Star runs a picture of Hon. John D. Bellamy on its front page, or rather the picture is supposed to be that of Mr. Bellamy. To tell you the honest truth, we believe it is an old stock cut of Hon. F. M. Simmons'."—News and Observer. G'wan! The News ought to know that all the old stock cuts of all the politicians since the war, perished in the News and Observer fire except one it had loaned out of General Jule Carr—the one with the speckled vest and white carnation in the lapel. All others are extinct.

WILMINGTON AND THE STATE.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Charlotte Observer, need not have any fear that Wilmington is not in the fight to the finish with the balance of the State against discriminatory freight rates. The fact is, Wilmington was the pioneer several years ago in making a fight for just freight rates. She was the first to establish a freight bureau and employed an expert to go over the entire rate situation. At great expense this city carried the fight before the Inter-State Commerce Commission, and we doubt whether any cause was so elaborately and strongly presented as Wilmington's contentions in that case.

The Observer always has been a strong and consistent friend of Wilmington, and its kindly interest in the progress of the city and its uniform friendliness towards the port always has been highly appreciated by the people of this city. No condition exists here that will prevent Wilmington from heartily co-operating with the entire State in securing rate justice for every quarter of the State. Indeed, Wilmington was the first of the cities to condemn the proposition of the railroads to Governor Craig and the legislative commission. The Star was among the first papers to sound dissatisfaction with the terms of the compromise offered by the railroads. The terms of the compromise, however well intentioned they may have been towards interior points, made it impossible for the State as a whole to accpt the reduction of rates that only considered one portion of the State. Acceptance of the compromise as offered would have estopped the State from a further fight for fair rates, and in a sense it would have been a surrender of the State's right to seek relief through its Legislature.

The Wilmington Chamber of Commerce lost no time in going on record in strong resolutions disapproving the compromise proposed to the Governor and the commission. Our only fear was that the up-State interests might be disposed to accept the compromise under the idea that "a half loaf is better than no loaf", but to the credit of the entire State, every portion of it, including Wilmington, stood as one man for equal justice to all the State. The balance of the State really stood by Wilmington, and we can see nothing in the situation as it now stands that does not show that Wilmington is in complete harmony with the State without regard to what might or might not happen here. Following its other interesting editorial on the attitude of Wilmington, the Observer adds this additional comment:

"Discussing in a manner which lacks nothing of candor or courtesy the state of facts recently adduced by us with reference to Wilmington's attitude on freight rates, the Wilmington Star expresses some apprehension concerning the possible bad effects of advertising the bottled-up condition there. This is an old story in other sections of the State. When vigorous and systematic efforts first began for redress of the State's freight-rate grievances the principal difficulty encountered arose from the natural reluctance of business men to make generally known, and in particular to make known to their trade, the enormous disadvantage at which they stood. What severely restricted business of distribution they managed to do in competition with the Virginia beneficiaries of favoritism they did largely by sacrificing profits to the discriminatory freight rates. Bad as their plight thus was, they feared to make it still worse pending the distant prospect of relief. One by one they had to be inspired with courage and brought to see that both the business and the moral considerations pointed the other way.

"Now there is but one attitude in the State at large, and we trust that Wilmington will soon come up abreast. North Carolina is in open revolt against unjust freight rates which stunt her development and give her over to exploitation from without. Counsels of short-sighted timidity have been thrown aside. And Wilmington's wrongs, however salved by the benefits derived from Atlantic Coast Line headquarters, are fully as great as those of any other part of the State.

"Take heart of grace, Wilmington. To remain consciously dependent upon the precarious favor of a single corporation, and to believe that this is conditioned upon tame acquiescence in rank injustice on other scores, does not comport with either the self-respect or the solid interests of any town—certainly not with the solid interests of any town, like Wilmington, having a broad basis of existence aside from the favors enjoyed. Who can doubt that such 'water' rates as the railroads give Virginia mountain points would be worth far more to her than all the pottage in return for despising her birthright she could ever receive? We most heartily trust that the Atlantic Coast Line will remain at Wilmington even though Wilmington shall cast aside the discreditable role of chief North Carolina port unresistingly bottled up as an essential feature of discrimination against the State. We urge Wilmington to let neither fear of losing the Atlantic Coast Line's favor nor fear of making known her commercial sufferings stand in her own or the State's way."

We believe Wilmington hereafter will be better understood by the balance of the State, and we are sure Wilmington has a better understanding of the up-State in its position on the vital question to all parts of the State alike. We believe the State is in a better position to appreciate the ultimate potentiality of its ocean gateway at Wilmington and Southport. If the State does not utilize both Wilmington and Southport in further entrenching itself against freight rate discrimination, it will be a great mistake. The real need of the State, not Wilmington's need, nor Southport's need, is 35 to 40 feet of water on the bar at Southport, a 30-foot channel to Wilmington, and ample ship terminals by which the commerce of the State can be taken care of. A deep water port will get the steamship service so necessary to relieve North Carolina in the future, and while it will help Wilmington and may make a city of Southport, it will give North Carolina a port upon which she can depend. That she needs it in her business, it is only necessary to point to what Virginia has been reaping all these years because she has a deep water port. North Carolina ought to get her one without any further delay. Get it at Southport and Wilmington, for in both the State has a powerful means of developing her resources to greater advantage.

With a deep water port, the State can clinch her arguments before the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Commerce Court and the Supreme Court which will continue to be the arbiters on the rate question in its broadest sense. The State can depend upon its Legislature to a large extent, but State legislation will have to run the gauntlet of the courts when State and out-of-State interests are involved. The best argument North Carolina can make on a final show down must be based upon the deep water that is necessary to provide the water competition that settles the rate question on its merit.

THE COST OF PRODUCING COTTON

The experts of the market bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture are now in the South making a study of the cost of production of cotton. Of course, the average cost of producing, say 15,000,000 bales of cotton, will be figured, since the cost of producing a bale of cotton varies in States and on different farms. Some farmers understand the economic factors involved in farming and it is the bookkeeping farmers who will be of most help to the bureau.

Some farmers can produce a bale of cotton at less expense than others and they also market their crops more economically than their neighbors. We know a community of farmers who take rainy days to do their marketing, otherwise the rainy day would be thrown away, as there is very little doing on a farm when there is too much rain for ordinary work. The farmer who makes the rainy day count on the farm and utilizes it for marketing or going to town is helping along the cause of economy. Here is where good roads help out.

However, the new market bureau is going to study for all the farmers the most economical marketing and selling plans. The general idea is to bring about co-operative market plans among the farmers. Where to sell, when to sell, how to ship and where to ship, so as to keep from oversupplying the markets, is what the market bureau is studying along its general plans.

The cost of producing and marketing a crop to the best advantage and in good shape counts for much in the year's returns on a farm. It will be interesting to see examples made of certain farmers who have gotten the thing down fine. Modern farming methods cut down the cost of production and get more for the labor expended. We have heard that one of North Carolina's up-to-date farmers expects to average one and a half bales of cotton on 300 acres this season, if prospects continue as at present. It won't cost him any more to make a bale and a half than it will some farmers to make a half bale to the acre. He will get three times as much cotton and three times as much money off his improved acre, as good farming as well as economic marketing plans for the producers will cut down a farmer's expense account and have everything to do with the cost of production.

It pays some farmers to raise cotton, while some lose money at it. In many instances it would pay better to produce something to eat. As North Carolina is producing more cotton per acre than any other Southern State, we predict that it will be found that North Carolina can produce cotton at less cost than it can be grown elsewhere in the cotton growing States.

"VIRTUE, LIBERTY, PATRIOTISM."

We know of no secret fraternal order that has a more attractive creed than the Junior Order, United American Mechanics, who meet with us this week in their annual State Council gathering. "Virtue, Liberty, Patriotism" are their cardinal principles. They teach uprightness in the individual and are a tremendous force for the preservation of liberty because of their patriotism. With them, the Bible and the Flag go together, and all over North Carolina they have presented replicas of Old Glory and the Scriptures to the public schools, which they actively support. More than once a Junior Council in a community has turned the balance in favor of better schools. They know no politics but they do not hesitate to leap into a campaign for funds to improve school conditions, and work and vote with energy and zeal for the strengthening of this bulwark of the National existence.

Wilmington's welcome to them this week will be as hearty as the Juniors here and the public generally can make it, and they know how to do it. The order is noted for being full of vigor and earnestness, and Wilmington's two splendid Councils are fine examples of the National body. The gates of the city, swinging wide always to the visitor, will be taken off the hinges if it is necessary to do so.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Star declares that Wilmington is the whole works. What does the Star want to start trouble in North Carolina for when the weather is so hot?—Rock Hill Herald.

Hon. John D. Bellamy, of Wilmington, able lawyer and former Congressman, is now in the limelight as to running for Governor, and before the campaign opens there will be others whom you have never dreamed of as coming out for the gubernatorial race. —Greenville Reflector.

Two meetings held last week deserve a passing word of commendation —that at Statesville, the county commissioners, and that of the Mayors at Wilmington. Representing the cities and the counties of the State these two gatherings discussed problems which directly interest the people of the State. In these meetings which are held annually the people should take much interest. for we need to progress along the lines of local government in North Carolina and these gatherings ought to be helpful. Rowan was represented at the Statesville meeting, though not at the Wilmington gathering, we believe.—Salisbury Post.

By the way of keeping history straight, as Judge Clark would say, it should be called to mind that, even before Hickory adopted the "City Manager" idea, which Dayton, O., has since seized upon so avidly, another North Carolina town took a shot at it but later lost her nerve and backed down. This was Thomasville. During the time when Captain Bill Burgin, a progressive of the progressives, was mayor, the board of aldermen passed a resolution creating the office of city manager, with a salary of $1,200 attached. But when their action became known, especially the salary part of it, such an agonized yell went up from the taxpayers that the board hastily rescinded the resolution. It was argued perhaps justly, that the town was at that time too small for such an expenditure to be really economical; and as economy is, theoretically, the chief merit of the plan, it was abondoned in this case. So Hickory retains her position, as the first town to have a city manager.—Greensboro News.

Canal construction where locks are involved is slow work, and the fact is made clear enough in the statement which Maj. William H. Bernard has secured from Major Stickle, the engineer in charge o fthe Cape Fear river locks between Wilmington and Fayetteville. The information is positive tha tthe canal and locks will be in shape for the use of one class of vessels by January 1, 1914. Boats drawing four and five feet will then be able to ply between the two cities regardless of low water. A year later the river will be open to vessels drawing eight feet. The people of the State do not yet realize what a great epoch will be marked in the history of North Carolina by the completion of this work. It will be to the commercial, industrial and agricultural interests of the State in proportion what the Panama Canal means to these interests in the country at large. Fayetteville, well into the interior of the State, will be made a deep water port, giving North Carolina a peculiar advantage and one not possessed by any other State. Major Stickle is cautious in setting dates. We may be sure the work will materialize within the time specified—there is reason to hope it may be of accomplishment sooner. By all means it devolves upon our Congressemn to keep the appropriations goin.—Charlotte Observer.

MODERN FASHIONS ARRAIGNED

To the Editor of The Star:

Through the columns of your paper I wish to make an appeal to the city authorities as well as to others concerned, for the protection of the small boys and the larger boys also, aginst the present improper, indecent and vulgar dressing by many of the women now in the city of Wilmington.

Why the Chief of Police has not already taken action against this immoral dressing I do not know.

Nero surely did not have the private dancers in his harem of the East more thinly clad than some of the women upon our streets. Already the vulgar "picture show" must be a thing too slow for the boys and men when they can see the "real thing" by sanding on the corner either in the day or at night. I understand that in the day time some do put on a thin petticoat under a thin top skirt, but at night there seems to be nothing except the top skirt.

While standing on the corner of Front and Princess streets this afternoon, many passed me in this undress condition and they were white women. A number of colored women passed but not a single one was so unlady like in her attire.

With special police to keep down the "bunny hug," the "turkey trot," and the "tango" (otherwise known as the hootchy-cootchy) surely we cannot let something that is demoralizing to a greater extent by far than all these go unchecked.

These women are poisoning the minds, sewing the passion that damns souls and have lowered the moral standard of our city until men hardly respect a woman when they meet one.

There is that "Southern chivalry" that forbade a man gazing into a woman's face as she passed, or openly upon her until out of the sunlight Even upon your street cars you see ladies standing while the men keep their seats.

I openly claim that the women are greatly to blame for this and the end is not yet. I again appeal for protection, not only to the city authorities but to all the noble men and women of our town. CITIZEN.

Stork and Cupid Cunning Plotters

Many a New Home will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten it.

There is usually a certain degree of dread in every woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of child-birth. But, thanks to a most remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, all fear is banished and the period is one of unbounded, joyful anticipation.

Mother's Friend is used externally. It is a most penetrating application, makes the muscles of the stomach and abdomen pliant so they expand easily and naturally without pain, without distress and with none of that peculiar nausea, nervousness and other symptoms that tend to weaken the prospective mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are held up to veneration; they are rated as cunning plotters to herald the coming of a little sunbeam to gladden the hearts and brighten the homes of a host of happy families.

There are thousands of women who have used Mother's Friend, and thus know from experience that it is one of our greatest contributions to healthy, happy motherhood. It is sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle, and is especially recommended as a preventive of caking breasts and all other such distresses.

The Independent Ice Company

Wishes to remind the users of Ice that several years ago, when we were the only manufacturers and distributors of Ice in and around Wilmington that we did not attempt to put up the price, but maintained the same old schedule that had been in force years before, although we had every opportunity to name any list of prices we saw fit. This is a cold-blooded fact, as cold and clear as any ice ever made in Wilmington, and is well worth public consideration, for the average Ice Maker would have without any hesitation put up the price, but that has never been the Independent Ice Company's way of doing business.

Two years, or more, ago, we were largely instrumental, through the medium of The Central Ice Company, of which we were large owners, of having a Special Ice Train put on at 6:00 A. M., to serve the Trolley Line patrons, at city prices.

For these considerations, we are not posing as public benefactors. They were simply good business moves, as we saw them. As for ice by other Beach trains than 6:00 A. M., the prices now in effect are the same that have prevailed for years past.

We wish to further remind the public of the superior services, and the full weight deliveries they have this season, the lack of which conditions caused such widespread complaints the past two years, when we were not directly engaged in the city delivery of ice.

That our ice and our services are appreciated is attested by the fact that our sales are 25 % or more greater this Summer than ever before.

COUNTY ABANDONS WORK

Health Department "Puts It Up" to the City to Remove Slops and Carrion—Statement From Chairman Willard.

The County Board of Health yesterday afternoon turned over to the Streets and Wharves Department of the city the equipment belonging to the city which the county health department has used for the past two months in the collection of garbage and carrion and beginning this morning the Board of Health, in accordance with a resolution adopted Friday night, will look to the street department to remove all garbage and carrion in the city.

Whether or not the city will carry out the mandate of the County Board of Health will be determined at the regular meeting of the City Council this morning, according to a statement Monday night of Councilman B. A. Merritt, in charge of the Department of Streets and Wharves. The health department, it seems, does not intend to do the work, so the city probably has no alternative. Dr. Nesbitt stated yesterday that hereafter persons having slops and carrion to be removed would please telephone No. 1103, which is the city stables.

Chairman M. S. Willard, of the Board of Health, yesterday gave out the following statement:

"It seems that at the expiration of the term of the contract between the city and Furlong & Co., in May of 1912, the City Health Department, by resolution of the Council was empowered to provide equipment and undertake to remove the slops and carrion in the city. This action of the Council was taken with full cognizance of the requirements of the city charter, and this work was transferred to the health department as a measure for the protection of the public health. The terms of the contract with Furlong & Co., necessitated the payment to Furlong & Co. a sum of $60 a week for the removal from the city of this refuse. The service under this contract was very unsatisfactory and incomplete as well as expensive. The Health Department began the removal of slops and small carrion at that time and has continued it since.

"One of the strongest reasons urged for the purchase of the incinerator was the feature of economy which would be accomplished through having the teams and the street force remove garbage and carrion with the trash, thus doing away with the necessity for the expense of two extra collection services. With the incinerator in use, trash, garbage and carrion all go into the same furnace so that there is no necessity at this time for the separation of the different kinds of refuse.

"When the estimates for the expenses of the Health Department were made up in April of this year, this plan was included in the estimates and fully explained in the document with which the estimates were submitted to the County Board of Health, the Board of County Commissioners and the Council of the city of Wilmington. On May 13th, the estimates for the budget were submitted to the County Board of Health, and all of its features were explained to that body by Dr. Nesbitt. These estimates and the explanatory document containing the explanations for the plan of garbage and carrion removal was published in the issue of The Star on Sunday, May 18th. On Monday, May 19th, the estimates were presented to the Board of County Commissioners before whom Dr. Nesbitt appeared and explained the various provisions, including the garbage and carrion collection and disposal. The issue of The Star on the 20th again mentioned this feature of the estimate. On Wednesday, May 21st, the estimate for the budget was considered by the City Council and Dr. Nesbitt appeared before this body and explained this provision with the other details of the budget. The issue of The Star on the 22nd of May, again mentioned this feature of the budget and gave the details of the plan. The County Board of Health and the County Commissioners adopted the terms of the estimate, and subsequently the City Council adopted the same estimate without any reference to or change in the plan proposed for the handling of garbage and carrion upon the completion of the incinerator. No objection was raised by the Council with reference to the amount, $632, asked for in the estimate to enable the Health Department to continue the collection of garbage and carrion until August 1st, when it was expected that the incinerator would be ready to be used.

"It can be seen that the action of the Board of Health at its meeting on August 15th was in direct pursuance of the original plan for the collection and removal of garbage and carrion, and in accordance with the action of the County Board of Health, the Board of County Commissioners, and the Council of the city of Wilmington."

Knives Sharpened Free.

Mr. Tom Ray, of St. Louis, Mo., for over 25 years an expert on sharpening cutlery, will be at the store of Peck & Holloway, 109 North Front street, all day today (Wednesday) and tomorrow and will sharpen any pocket knife presented, absolutely free of charge. Messrs. Peck & Holloway have Mr. Ray here for the purpose of demonstrating the proper methods of sharpening knives and will be glad to have everybody come to their store and let Mr. Ray convert their rusty blades into trusty blades.

Will Amend Sign Ordinance.

It was stated yesterday that the question of amending the sign ordinance so as to allow all signs whether illuminated or not, which meet the requirements of safety and pass the inspection of the building inspector would be taken up by the Council at its meeting this morning. In the meantime the police department has been notified to cease to enforce the law until after the Council meeting today.

Want Street Improved.

A letter has been received by Mayor Moore from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad asking that the short section of Front street extending north from Red Cross street to the new concourse over the railroad track be improved. When Front street was being improved a short while ago this stretch of street was left unimproved as work on the new station was just beginning.

SIX MONTHS FOR WOEBSE

Defendant Withdraws Appeal and Final Judgment is Left Open Until Today—Whiskey Was Watered, Shown by Test.

Charlie Woebse, a young white man, was yesterday found guilty by Substitute Recorder Harriss of violating the prohibition law by having in his possession more whiskey than the law allows. He was sentenced to serve six months on the roads, and an appeal was taken to the Superior Court. Later hewithdrew the appeal and judgment was left open until today. Woobse voluntarily surrendered himself to the police officers yesterday morning.

On August 8th the police department got wind of the fact that a shipment of whiskey had been made to Woebse. Plainclothesmen Leon George and D. W. Coleman went to his home at No. 613 Swann street, and found him busy filling quart and pint bottles with whiskey which was being drawn from a 10-gallon keg. He made his escape from the house, and nothing more was seen of him until yesterday morning when he came into police headquarters and gave himself up.

There was no evidence given yesterday to show that there had been a sale of whiskey by Woebse. He was iidicted under the search and seizure act, which provides that having in one's possession more than a gallon of whiskey shall be prima facie evidence of a sale.

Some little confusion was caused in the court when it was found that the whiskey in the bottles was of a different color from that in the keg. This was soon cleared up, however, by taking a sample from the keg and mixing it with an equal quantity of water which then made it have the appearance of the whiskey in the bottles.

Shepard Newkirk, colored, was fined $25 and the cost in each of two cases, one of these being for carrying concealed weapons, and the other for assault with a deadly weapon. The sentence was first made three months on the roads in each case but was later changed. Newkirk, it seems, was on his way to Castle Haynes when he met a crowd of negroes returning from church. He tried to get one of the women in the number to go with him and when she refused he drew his gun and "'lowed" that he would show them a thing or two.

The case against Mattie Moore, colored, charged with violating the prohibition law, was continued until today.

Justice Harriss aced as Recorder yesterday in the absence of Recorder Furlong, who was kept at home on account of illness.

L. J. Poisson, Esq., was prosecuting attorney for the State in the absence of Solicitor Peschau.

THE CITY FINANCES.

Statement of Amounts Expended by the Several Departments.

Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, yesterday completed his statement of amounts expended by the several departments of the city government for the two months of the fiscal year, June 1st to August 1st. The statement shows amounts appropriated for the year, audited and unexpended and overdrawn, the latter being items for which no appropriation was made or in which the appropriation has been exceeded. The report follows:

General Expense Account—Appropriation for year, $21,640; audited, $4,730.20; unexpended, $17,100.84; overdrawn, $191.04.

Police—Appropriation for year, $39,015; audited, $7,158.07; unexpended, $31,979.57; overdrawn, $122.64.

Street Cleaning and Repairs—Appropriation for year, $37,630; audited, $11,426.65; unexpended, $26,203.35.

Street Lighting—Appropriation for year, $18,619; audited, $2,782.57; unexpended, $15,836.43.

Markets—Appropriation for year, $1,750; audited, $445.30; unexpended, $1,304.70.

Bonds and Coupons—Appropriation for year, $90,000; audited, $27,917.90; unexpended, $63,017.50; overdrawn $935.40.

Totals are given as follows: Appropriation for year $275,668; audited, $67,452.08; unexpended, $209,465; overdrawn, $1,249.08.

Other amounts audited were as follows: Water and Sewerage (operating), $10,025.52; sewerage construction, $27,387.52; incinerator, $10,689.81; sidewalks, $30; loans repaid, $35,000; total amount audited, $150,584.93.

WILL PUT ON BIG SALE.

Wright Agency to Dispose of Whole Block First of September.

Fresh from a large and highly successful sale in Washington, D. C., Mr. K. W. Cobb, of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company, of Greenville, N. C., arrived in the city yesterday morning and closed a contract with Mr. Thos. H. Wright whereby he will put on for Wright's Real Estate Agency a big sale in this city Monday September 1st. An entire city block, bounded by Orange and Ann and 14th and 18th streets, is to be disposed of that day. The property has recently been improved and the lots will doubtless go rapidly. "Eastern Hill" is the name of the property that is to be sold.

The Atlantic Coast Realty Company is one of the biggest real estate auctioneers in the country. The company travels in its own Pullman car and carries its own band. Burton Bros. are the auctioneers and they are known as two of the world's greatest real estate auctioneers.

POSTOFFICE IMPROVEMENTS

New Window for Parcel Post Business is Being Provided—New Flooring for Lobby is Planned.

Carpenters began work yesterday at the postoffice making some much needed improvements. A new window for the parcel post business is being made on the north side of the lobby. It is in proximity to the stamp window, and for the present the stamp clerk will also attend to the parcel post feature. This department of the postoffice, however, is growing very rapidly, and it is expected that within a short time it will reach such proportions that it will be necessary to have a clerk who will devote all his time to attending to the parcel post business.

The other windows will also be enlarged, and marble bases will replace the present board bases of the windows which will greatly improve the appearance of the interior of the postoffice as well as facilitate the handling of mail through the windows.

Proposals for replacing the present floor of the lobby with new material were sent out by Postmaster Green yesterday. The contract will be awarded on September 3rd to the lowest bidder. The present floor is made of marble blocks of different kinds. The white marble wears much more rapidly than the colored marble so that with the constant walking over the floor the surface soon becomes very uneven. All of it will be taken out and replaced with marble of one kind so as to have a perfectly smooth floor.

Postmaster Green stated yesterday that he had heard nothing in regard to his request for an increase in the carrier service of the city.

REV. THOMAS D. BROWN.

Passed Away in Raleigh, Will Be Buried Here.

Many friends will regret to know that the Rev. Thomas W. Brown died on Monday in Raleigh. Mr. Brown was for anumber of years a prominent and respected citizen of this city, having first practiced law here and after the war, in which he fought, removed to New York, where he became an associate editor on the staff of the New York World, which position he held for many years.

After the death of his wife he resigned his editorial position and studied theology and was ordained a minister of Protestant Episcopal church of the Diocese of New York, and began his duties and service in the city of New York, and was afterwards called to a church in Connecticut, where he remained for some years. Mr. Brown was possessed of many lovable characteristics and a temper that was rarely ever ruffled, besides, he was widely and carefully read, having at his tongue's end facts and figures and events of historical information that made him an interesting, entertaining and valuable companion.

His manner was charming and his contact with his friends always a source of pleasure, for apart from his deep knowledge theer was an undertone of humor that kept the listener in amiling mood. Long years of study and association with men and books made him an encyclopedia of information, and whether it was an intricate question of theology or the succession to a throne in England, or the standing of the club in the National League, he was ready with his knowledge to discuss the theme or give the answer.

Mr. Brown was connected with many people here and leaves many relatives to mourn his death. His sister, Mrs. Caroline Brown Harriss, was the wife of the late Dr. William W. Harriss. His was a gentle and lovable spirit, free from guile and suspicion. He will be buried this morning at 11 o'clock from the lodge at Oakdale cemetery, his remains arriving here on the morning train from Raleigh.

ARRESTED IN LUMBERTON.

Two Young Men Supposed to be Wanted Here for Store Robberies.

A long distance message was received last night by Justice Harriss from Chief of Police H. H. Redfern, of Lumberton, stating that two young men, who are wanted here on the charge of breaking into several stores at Delgado, had been arrested by him. He will bring them to Wilmington today. Immediately after the warrants were issued Monday Justice Harriss sent a message to Lumberton asking the officers to be on the look-out for the young men.

The name of one of the young men arrested last night at Lumberton was given as John Skipper. The name of the other was not learned. There are four who are charged with having been implicated in the affair. One of these, Edward Fryar, was arrested Monday, and bound over to Superior Court by Justice Harriss. The names of the others for which warrants were issued are Wesley Hamilton, Herbert Johnson and John Skipper.

The store of Mr. W. V. Dew at Delgado was broken into early Monday morning and a quantity of sardines and other canned goods taken. The store of Mr. Z. T. Thompson was broken into Sunday afternoon and a lot of groceries taken. Mr. J. W. Goley's store at Carolina Place was entered Saturday night and a quantity of cigarettes and other things carried off. An attempt was also made Saturday night to enter the store of the Delgado Cotton Mills, but without success.

MR. HUNTER TAKES CHARGE.

New Seaboard Commercial Agent Arrived Yesterday from Raleigh.

Mr. E. E. Hunter, of Raleigh, the successor of Mr. F. A. Fetter as commercial agent for the Seaboard Air Line in this city, arrived yesterday and took charge of the office. Mr. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hunter, and his sister, Miss Mary Hunter, who now reside in Raleigh will come to Wilmington about November 1st. Mr. Hunter was with the Seaboard as commercial agent in Raleigh for five years and before going to Raleigh spent seven years in the offices of the Seaboard at Norfolk, Va. He is a young man of most pleasing address and splendid ability.

While nothing official has been given out as yet it is understood that Mr. Hunter's office will be made a division freight and passenger office after September 1st. Large offices have been secured in the Orton Hotel which are now being fitted up. It is expected that the present office force will be increased by at least three men.

Fire at Phoenix.

A long distance telephone message to The Star last night from Phoenix stated that the warehouse of Mr. L. E. Sandlin had been destroyed by fire of unknown origin, the blaze breaking out about 8:30 o'clock. The loss could not be learned, but some insurance was carried on the building.

JUNIORS GATHER AT BEACH

Opening Session of State Council Will be Held This Morning, Having Been Postponed From Yesterday—Attendance.

The annual convention of the State Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics did not assemble at Wrightsville Beach yesterday as scheduled, a postponement until this morning having been necessary on account of a misunderstanding among the delegates as to the time for the opening session, the result being that not a great many had arrived until last night.

The original plan of the local committee was for the opening session at noon yesterday, but for some reason most of the delegates thought the first session would be held on Wednesday. The result was that at noon yesterday there were not very many Juniors at the resort as compared with the number expected to arrive later. So it was decided to have the opening session last night, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. When night came delegates were still arriving in great numbers and others were expected at midnight and on the early trains today, so it was decided by the Grand Council officers in conference with the local committee not to attempt a meeting last night, but to hold the first session this morning, beginning at 9 o'clock.

The meeting will be held in the assembly hall of the Oceanic Hotel, the change from the Seashore Hotel having been decided on last night as the hall at the former is larger and more adapted to conventions of this kind. Most of the delegates are stopping at the Seashore Hotel, which was well crowded last night, but many are at the Oceanic Hotel, and some are at the Hanover Inn.

There will be three sessions today. It is likely that the morning session will run to 12:30 or 1 o'clock. The afternoon session will begin at 2:30 or 3 o'clock and the night session at 8:30 o'clock. State Councilor N. L. Eure, of Greensboro, stated last night that it is likely that all the business of the Council will be disposed of by Thursday afternoon.

This morning the visitors will be formally welcomed to Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach by Woodus Kellum, Esq., of the local bar and a prominent Junior. The response will be made by Mr. J. R. Joyce, a delegate from Reidsville. The address of welcome and response have been limited to 15 minutes each. Following the formal opening the State Council will go into executive session for the transactions of the business before the body.

Tonight the visitors will be entertained at a souvenir dance at Lumina, given by the Tidewater Power Company in their honor. The indications are that the dance will be largely attended not only by Juniors and members of their families, but by other guests of the hotels and boarding houses and by young people from the city. The only other social feature planned for the convention is a trip down the river to Fort Caswell, which will be given at a time to be designated by the State Council. It was at the request of the officers of the State Council that little attention was paid to arranging social features.

The State officers of the order are as follows: State Councillor, Judge N. L. Eure, Greensboro; Vice State Councillor, J. W. Sechrest, High Point; Secretary, Sam F. Vance, Winston-Salem; treasurer, George V. Fulk, Kernersville.

During the past year there have been 21 new Councils organized in the State, and a total increase in membership of 3,484. Mr. Eure stated yesterday that this has been one of the most successful years in the history of the order in this State.

FORMAL OPENING NEXT MONTH

Practically All Furnishings for the Local Y. M. C. A. Have Arrived. Handsome New Home Almost Completed.

Members and prospective members of the Wilmington Y. M. C. A. are looking forward with the greatest interest and pleasure to the early opening of the handsome new building now nearing completion on Market street, next east of the Colonial Inn. The formal opening of the building, it is now believed, will take place about the 15th of September and the regular Fall activities of the association will be inaugurated at that time. Y. M. C. A. work in Wilmington has been practically suspended for a year while the new building was being elected.

The new building will be one of the handsomest in the State and its equipment will be second to none anywhere. The association will be enabled to broaden its scope of work in Wilmington and plans for this have already been considered by the officers. General Secretary Huntington will have several assistants who have already been selected and their names announced to the public. They will arrive some time between now and the 15th of September.

Practically all the furnishings for the new building have arrived and will be put in place just as soon as the interior of the building has received the final touches. The work is going ahead very rapidly and everything will be completed, it is thought, by the date of the opening.

The dormitory of the new building will contain 60-odd rooms and these will be taken immediately after the opening. Already 71 applications have been received from young men wanting rooming accommodations in the building. The demand, it is indicated will be much greater than the supply.

A committee of 13 has been appointed to arrange for the formal opening of the building, and it is likely that a programme of exercises will be carried out.

Annual Excursion to Columbia.

Knight's annual excursion to Columbia, S. C., was run yesterday over the Atlantic Coast Line, the train leaving here at 7 o'clock with over 300 passengers, most of these being colored. Quite a number were picked up along tht line between Wilmington and Columbia. Returning the train will leave Columbia this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

PRES. TATE'S COMMITTEE.

Rate Association Head Considers Appointment of Ten Men.

Yesterday afternoon's Charlotte Chronicle had the following:

Information from the office of President Fred N. Tate, of the Just Freight Rate Association of North Carolina at High Point, is to the effect that he is considering the appointment of the conference committee of ten men from the various sections of the State carefully and that it will be several days, probably, before he sends the names of the committee to Governor Craig.

In a telephone conversation with the executive secretary today, President Tate expressed the opinion that he might name four traffic men as assistants to the committee and name the entire ten members of the committee proper from the business men of the State at large, dividing them over the State as nearly equally as is possible to secure the best men available for the service which they are to be called upon to perform. To this end he is receiving suggestions from all sections of the State from the various interests so that when the committee is complete it will represent as many interests as possible throughout the entire Commonwealth.

The suggestion of President Tate of naming four traffick experts as assistants to the conference committee is meeting the approval of business people in many sections, as it is believed that these gentlemen will be of untold value to the committee itself and to Governor Craig and the other properly constituted authorities of the State who are dealing with the question of freight rates.

President Tate has in mind a number of the men he will name on the committee, but he is anxious to have suggestions from the various interests and the various sections of the State to the end that he may have the very best possible list to select the ten from.

President Tate had hoped to be able to send the committee appointments to the Governor today or tomorrow but he was detained at the North Carolina municipal convention at Wrightsville several days and was not able to get at his work until Saturday, so that there will be some little delay in announcing the personnel of the advisors of the authorities.

WEDDING IN BROOKLYN OF INTEREST LOCALLY.

Many friends in this city and elsewhere will learn with interest of the marriage at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon of Mr. James F. Gause, Jr., a prominent young architect of Wilmington, and Miss Esther Virginia Edson, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Edson, No. 957 East Tenth street, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Gause left immediately after the ceremony for Washington, D. C., and will later go to the western part of North Carolina, where they will spend a week or ten days, returning to Wilmington to make their home. Announcement of the engagement of the young couple was made some time ago and friends in this city knew that the wedding would take place some time soon, but no date had been set. The bride spent last Winter in Wilmington, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. L. D. Potter, and made many friends who will be pleased to welcome here as the bride of Mr. Gause, who is one of the State's most promising young architects and is very popular in a wide circle of friends.

WITH THE MOVIES

A bright galary of films will the handsome, cozy Grand set before amusement lovers today. It is an all round swell bill the Grand will offer and this, plus the Grand's solid comfort, and its tiny price of admission, 5c, will assure tremendous sized audiences. "The Dance at Eagle Pass" is one of the best of the topliners and it is a stirrer, especially the scene when the postoffice is robbed. "Sweet Deception" is a Vitagraph for today that is full of heart interest and sweetness. It tells of how a couple part, through misunderstanding, and are later brought back together by adear, sweet old mother. There is also a capital Edison on today, thus completing what will be pronounced one of the best moving picture bills ever presented in Wilmington.

The Bijou's Bill.

Headed by what has been proclaimed the strongest dramatic film of years and one that carries the spectators to the old days of brigands in Europe, the Bijou will today make another big offering. This much talked of film is simply entitled "The Robbers," and it is Edison's greatest effort. It tells of how a young man disinherited, turns brigand and leads one of the most daring of all robber bands in Germany. His adventures, together with a love story, are rich and thrilling. A stirring novel, spectacular incident is when the robber band storms the old castle. "The Acid Test" is another powerful dramatic on today, dealing with a live problem, in intense way. There will also be plenty of comedy, to evenly balance the count. "Tit for Tat" is Essanay's latest laugh producer. There is also a big travel-film on in "Through the Cumberland Mountains of Tennessee" and it is something extra good. The Bijou is always comfortable and its low price of admission, 5 cents, helps to make it magnetic, of course.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mr. Arthur Hewlett was arrested yesterday for exceeding the speed limit with an automobile. He will have a hearing before Justice Harriss this morning.

—Deputy Sheriff Kelly will leave this morning for Goldsboro, having in his custody Hettie Bryant, colored, who is to be committed to the State Hospital there.

—In Justice Harriss' court yesterday Justice Bornemann, upon submission to the charge of simple assault upon Mr. John S. Ramos, editor of The Live Wire, was taxed with the costs and judgment suspended.

—Bill Williams, colored was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Reynolds on a warrant charging him with assault with a deadly weapon. He was recognized for his appearance before Justice Harriss Friday.

—The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this morning at 9:15 o'clock. This will be the first meeting in two weeks, the last meeting having been postponed on account of the firemen's parade, which began about that time.

MAKE WAR ON MACMILLAN.

Negro Whose Testimony Sent Five Men to Roads Attacked Last Night.

Presumably because his testimony was responsible for the conviction of six "blind tigers" in Recorder's court Monday, Robert MacMillan, colored, was attacked last night about 9 o'clock at Eighth and Brunswick streets, by 10 or 12 negro men. Several of them had sticks with which they struck him several times. Seeing that he had no showing against such a large number, he ran into a store on Eighth street, between Bladen and Brunswick. As he did so several shots were fired at him, one of which came near hitting Erie Jackson, a colored woman.

The woman reported the matter to the police department and Officers Leon George and D. W. Coleman were sent to look into the matter. After hunting for several hours they finally located MacMillan, and verified the story which the Jackson woman had told at the police station. After going into the store MacMillan ran out the back door and finally succeeded in getting clear of his pursuers. The names of several of the attacking parties are known, and it is probable that stveral arrests will be made.

MacMillan is a driver for one of the local ice companies, and appears to be a negro of good character. Saturday night he assisted Officers George and Jacobs in locating several "blind tigers," five of whom were given terms on the roads by the Recorder.

BONDS ADVERTISED AGAIN.

Commissioners Decide to Raise Rate of Interest to Five Per Cent.

The Star this morning carries the advertisement of the County Commissioners for bids on the bond issue of $125,000 for roads and schools, for which but one bid was submitted Monday, and the rate of interest was raised from four and a half to five per cent. It was the opinion of bond buyers, expressed in letters to the board, that the issue at this time would hardly find bidders at four and a half per cent., and the Commissioners inclined to that idea themselves, but took no action Monday. Yesterday it was decided to raise the rate and again offer the bonds to the public. The date set for opening the bids is August 25th. Bidders will be required to deposit a certified check for one per cent., instead of five per cent. of their bids.

SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

Unfavorable Weather and Crop Reports Responsible for the Rise in Prices—New High Ground for the Movement.

New York, Aug. 19.—Unfavorable weather and crop reports caused a sharp advance in the cotton market today. Yesterday's losses were not only recovered, but prices made new high ground for the movement, and closed within a point or two of the best, at a net gain of 15 to 24 points.

A feeling that the precipitation reported yesterday in the Southwest, and not been sufficient to fully relieve drouthy conditions was confirmed by the reading of the weekly weather report, and some uncertainty as to the progress of the Eastern belt crop was also created by the official statement that several States were in need of moisture. Moreover, there were a few scattering reports of deterioration east of the river, as well as further unfavorable reports from Texas and Oklahoma, and while the news did not stimulate any general buying movement, it served to restrict offerings, and thus render the market responsive to a fairly active demand from shorts or local bulls.

Reports that the weather was dry and hot in both Texas and Oklahoma again this morning were evidently a factor in Liverpool, as prices were better than due with private cables reporting a considerable demand from the continent, particularly from Rusia. The local market opened steady, at an advance of 9 to 10 points, on the combined influence of foreign strength and unfavorable crop reports with active months selling about 14 to 16 points net higher during the early trading.

Realizing caused slight reactions during the morning, but the market firmed up again after the publication of the weekly bureau, reaching the best point of the day in the late trading. Wire houses with Southern connections were considerable buyers during the day, supposedly on reports from Oklahoma claiming that the crop was almost a failure in some sections, while very unfavorable reports were also received from North Texas.

CAPT. N. B. ALEXANDER.

Prominent Fayetteville Man Dead—E. H. Hall Dies in Texas.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 19.—Capt. N. B. Alexander, one of the most prominent men of Fayetteville, chairman of the municipal public works commission, passed away at 6 o'clock last evening at the home of his brother, Dr. L. M. Alexander, in Scranton, Pa., where he was taken ill five weeks ago, while visiting there with his wife and daughter. All the members of his family being with him when he died. The telegram announcing the death came to Secretary H. J. McBuie, of the public works commission.

Mr. Alexander's remains will be brought here, arriving at 7:15 tomorrow morning, accompanied by Dr. Alexander and the members of the family.

Capt. Alexander came to Fayetteville from Chester, S. C., 25 years ago. He was always interested in municipal affairs, and his business sense and honesty of purpose made him a valuable man to the community. His wife, also from Chester, was Miss Mary Fassoux. In addition to his wife he leaves two daughters, Misses Mamie and Norris Alexander. Capt. Alexander was prominent in the Knights of Pythias and Woodmen of the World orders.

Edward Hale Hall, of Waco, Texas, brother of H. R. Hall, of this city; Rev. John H. Hall, of Raleigh, presiding elder of the Raleigh district of the Methodist conference, and Mrs. Eliza Roberts, of Shelby, died in a hospital at San Antonio Friday. Mr. Hall, who was born and reared in Fayetteville, went to Texas in 1881. He was the son of the late Henry G. and Emily Robinson Hall, and was a man of very bright intellect as well as strong character. He leaves a wife and four children.

WILSON'S TOBACCO OPENING.

Two Hundred Thousand Pounds of the Weed Sold Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., Aug. 19.—Tobacco buyers estimate that the total sales of leaf tobacco sold at the opening today will go over 200,000 pounds. There was remarkable interest in buying, the better grades selling as high as 35 and 50 cents a pound. Trash lugs sold for seven and a half cents. Farmers, buyers and warehousemen are happy over the outlook.

Tobacco market opened with well filled floors and prospects equally as good as last year if not better. The buyers are seemingly in good spirit and the prices paid on the market here today range from two to three cents above last year's opening. The average quality does not seem to be as good but later receipts promise to be above the average.

Many farmers are in town today and the reports from every section of the territory tributary to Wilson indicate record-breaking crops. The condition of the cotton crop is better than reported several weeks ago and if the season continues good the yield will be beyond any season in the history of this market. A late Fall is needed for cotton in this sectionand the farmers are hoping for a season similar to the Fall of 1912.

The very heavy acreage in tobacco, possibly 50 per cent. above last year, means a larger crop and Wilson buyers expect the total sales for the season to go far above last year. The bidding between the several buying concerns is spirited this morning and this fact is responsible for the higher price.

TONE OF STOCKS DEPRESSED

Mexican Situation the Conspicuous Influence in the Market—Partial Recovery of Strength in Late Trading.

New York, Aug. 19.—The Mexican situation was the conspicuous influence in today's stock market. Reports over night that the relations between this country and Mexico had reached a crisis were responsible for depressing the list, and although more reassuring statements were related, the tone continued uncertain.

American stocks declined in London on selling orders from this side. When trading in this market began, prices gave way generally with especial heaviness in corporations which have interests in Mexico.

Some large blocks were unloaded early, but pressure thereafter was not severe. At the low figures of the session Smelting showed a 3 point loss. Amalgamated Copper and Union Pacific were 2 points off and the active list generally 1 to 2 points.

Operations were on a small scale during the afternoon that the market effected a partial recovery. London followed the decline abroad by selling stocks here. Sales for foreign account ran between 20,000 and 30,000 shares, with heavy offerings of Amalgamated. Threats of renewed disturbances in the Balkans and uneasiness regarding the monetary situation at Berlin gave the foreign news a bearish aspect.

Bonds were irregular. Union Pacific convertibles and Rock Island collaterals were especially heavy. Total sales, par value $969,000. United States 4s and Panama 3s, coupon, declined ½ on call. Total sales were 235,600, including C. & O., 1,400; L. V., 1,000; N. & W., 300; Reading, 27,400; S. A. L., pfd., 200; Southern Ry., 600; T. C., 900; U. S. Steel, 76,500; V.-C. C., 200 shares.

line from New Hampshire. He admitted his identity and complacently declared that he could not be extradited as he had committed no crime.

Two men, who are supposed to have accompanied Thaw in his spectacular flight from the insane hospital at Matteawan, New York, last Sunday morning, were in his company and were also detained.

They were charged with "being under suspicion of having committed an offense in another and friendly nation." The two men, one of large build and the other a smaller man, at once retained counsel and refused to disclose their identity.

Reward Goes to Sheriff.

The $500 reward for Thaw's arrest belongs to Sheriff B. H. Kelsea, of Colebrook, N. H., who recognized Thaw on a Maine Central Railroad train last night. After the fugitive had left the train at Kerford, Kelsea pursued him to Hermengile-Garford, where, at the request of the sheriff a Canadian constable placed the fugitive under arrest. Police immediately after Thaw's arrival here about 6 o'clock this morning sent a message to Superintendent Kleb, of the Matteawan hospital notifying him of the arrest, and giving a description of the prisoner. The superintendent replied asking that the man be held.

Thaw's companions were not put in jail, but appeared under surveillance, presumably in custody of their counsel.

Opinion of Washington Officials.

Washington, Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw may be extradited from Canada on a warrant charging bribery, but there is no provision in any of the treaties between the United States and Great Britain for extradition on a charge of conspiracy, except conspiracy as it relates to conspiracy to revolt against the master of a ship on the high seas. There is no provision for extradition on the charge "fugitive from justice.

Those are the views of State Department officials based upon the treaties of 1842, 1849 1900 and 1905. In none of those conventions is there a "hot pursuit" clause which would permit the arrest of a fugitive who succeeded in getting across the border just ahead of his captors.

Immigration authorities here believe Thaw could be detained and returned to the United States by the Canadian immigration authorities as an insane man or an undesirable alien. They have no definite information, however, of the provision of the Canadian law.

Extradition for bribery could be asked under the treaty of 1905, which, however, contains qualification that the bribery must be "defined to be the offering, giving or receiving of bribes made criminal by the laws of both countries."

Any request for extradition would necessarily come through the Governor of New York, and that would confront the Federal government with recognizing one ofthe contestants for that office in the Sulzer case. No request for extradition had been made today.

Grounds for Extradition.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 19.—H. K. Thaw, whose spectacular flight from the Matteawan Asylum ended today with his arrest at Coaticook may be sent back to New York on either of two grounds, namely: First—Through deportation proceedings under the Dominion law which provides: "No immigrant shall be permitted to land in Canada who is feeble minded, an idiot or epileptic or who is insane, or who has had an attack of insanity within five years nor shall any immigrant be so landed who is deaf and dumb, or blind or infirm, unless he belongs to a family accompanying him, or already in Canada, which gives security satisfactory to the minister, and in conformity with the regulations in that behalf for his permanent support if admitted to Canada."

Second—"Through extradition proceedings instituted by the State of New York, and conducted by the proper Federal authorities on a warrant for Thaw's arrest charging him with bribery."

He cannot be restrained on the warrant already issued in New York charging conspiracy in the opinion of authorities, because existent treaties deal only with the brand of conspiracy relating to revolt against the master of a ship on the high seas. A new warrant charging conspiracy, the authorities believe, would have to be sworn out.

There is, of course, a possibility that Canada will not deport him and will decline to honor an extradition requisition issued by the United States.

To these possibilities the wealthy slayer of Stanford White commanded his attention and that of his counsel tonight, preparatory to hearing of his case set for tomorrow.

Going After Thaw.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 19.—District Attorney Edward Conger, Sheriff Hornbeck and former District Attorney Mack left tonight for Sherbrooke, Que., with the avowed intention of taking Harry Thaw into custody and returning him either to the Duchess county jail or Matteawan Asylum.

The officials have a warrant charging conspiracy, issued by Justice Morschauser, and if it is found Thaw cannot be extradited on the conspiracy charge a new warrant charging bribery will be applied for and an attempt made to extradite the fugitive on that charge.

The district attorney hopes, however, that Canada will deport Thaw and in so doing land him over the international line in New York instead of in New Hampshire or Vermont.

Should this be done, Mr. Conger and his associates will be waiting on the line to take Thaw into custody and bring him back. They don't want him returned to any other State than New York because he would then have an opportunity to attempt to prove he is sane and tedious litigation and delay would follow.

Sheriff Hornbeck and District Attorney Conger went to Matteawan this afternoon to get a more complete description of the five men who it is alleged aided Thaw to escape. The officials inquired also as to the ownership of an automobile which they believed was used as a pathfinder for the Thaw car last Saturday.

Chief of Police McCabe ascertained that this car made the tour from Matteawan to Connecticut and return last Saturday to pick out the best roads for Thaw. District Attorney Conger learned the number of the automobile and communicated with Secretary of State May as to its ownership. It was found that the number was that of three automobile trucks. The official believe the number was taken from one of the trucks and used on the pathfinder.

Howard Barnum, the Matteawan guard, who opened the gate when Thaw made his escape, had nothing to say when notified that Thaw had been captured. Barnum will be given a hearing Thursday on charges of bribery, conspiracy and neglect of duty.

Attorney General's Opinion.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 19.—After a conference with Duchess county authorities, Deputy Attorney General Parsons tonight announced that "if it were deemed necessary" Deputy Attorney General Franklin Kennedy would go to Canada in an effort to procure Thaw's return to this State.

It was pointed out at the attorney general's office that the Canadian officials might interpret their deportation laws so that Thaw could only be returned to the State from which he entered Canada. In this event, it was said Mr. Kennedy might endeavor to influence the Dominion officials to direct the fugitive's return direct to this State.

Mr. Kennedy represented the State in opposition to two of Thaw's recent attempts to bring about his release from the Matteawan institution on habeas corpus proceedings.

Thaw Will be Deported.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 19.—Harry K. Thaw will be deported from Canada under the present plans of the Canadian immigration department, because within the meaning of the Canadian immigration act he is regarded as a "prohibited person". If custom is followed he will be sent back to New Hampshire from which State he entered the Dominion. The department this afternoon wired the chief of police of Sherbrooke to hold Thaw under the immigration act.

The act seems plain in regard to Thaw's case. The law states that idiots, imbeciles, insane people or erstwhile criminals shall not enter the country and if they succeed in eluding immigration officers they shall be deported forthwith.

There is an exception, however, and it is interesting to note that the negro pugilist Johnson recently managed to pass through Canada under the clause which provides that one of the prohibited class who enters Canada carrying with him through transportation to another country may not have his progress impeded. Information received does not say whether Thaw had taken the precaution of securing such transportation, though following so closely on the Johnson affair it is difficult to see how his legal advisers could have overlooked this contingency.

At the Justice Department grave doubt is expressed as to the power of the courts to grant extradition. In the treaty between Great Britain and the United States an escape from an asylum is not mentioned as an extraditable offense. The department, however, unhesitatingly expressed the opinion that the case cames under the immigration act.

MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

Indianapolis Man Killed and No Motive Assigned for Killing.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 19.—Frank Falk, a real estate man living at 315 East 19th street, was murdered early this morning on the temporary bridge over White river, at Washington avenue. His assailant escaped.

Falk's body was found by three transfer men who were assisting a circus load its cars after the night performance. Edward A. Kers, night watchman at the old West Washington street bridge, heard the shot and was just going over to the temporary bridge to investigate when the transfer men shouted that a man's body was lying on the bridge.

No one saw the man who fired the fatal shot flee and the police are working without a tangible clue. A revolver with all the sheils unexploded was found in the dead man's pocket which precludes a possibility of suicide.

Mrs. Falk who, with two daughters, survive the dead man, when informed of the tragedy, was unable to throw any light on the murder. She said Falk left home at 7:30 o'clock in the evening and that she had heard nothing from him. Mrs. Falk could offer no motive for her husband's presence in that part of the city after midnight and knew of no enemies who might be suspected of the crime.

There were no appearances that Falk had been robbed, as his clothes did not seem to have been disturbed after he fell. His keys and papers were found in his pockets.

TURKS OCCUPY KUCHUK KAKVAH

Attempting to Hold Territory West of Mesta River.

Sofia, Aug. 19.—The Turks have occupied Kuchuk Kakvak, after an engagement with the small Bulgarian garrison. It is believed to be Turkey's intention to occupy and hold the territory westward to the Mesta river, not with a view to its permanent occupation, but in order to compel Bulgarin to treat with Turkey direct on the question of Adrianople, and thus prevent interference by the powers. There are some indications that Greece is acting in collusion with Turkey. Greece has announced her readiness to evacuate Xanthi, Gumuljina and Dedeaghatch next Thursday with the suggestion that Bulgaria occupy them the following day. Occupation Friday is impossible, owing to the difficulties of communication, and Bulgaria has requested a postponement of the evacuation and occupation until August 28th. The opinion is expressed, however, that Greece will adhere to her plan to evacuate Thursday and thus enable the Turks to occupy these towns in advance of the Bulgarians.

RIFLE SHOT MATCHES.

West Virginia Takes First Place With Total of 380 Points.

Camp Perry, O., Aug. 19.—The championship company team match was fired in two stages, the surprise fire and 600 yard range. Nineteen teams entered. West Virginia took first place with a total of 380 points. Company C team, Massachusetts cadets, was second with 366 points, and Company K, District of Columbia, third with 365.

In the marine corps match on the 600 yard and the 1,000 yard ranges Corporal Charles B. Loring, of the Marine Corps, and J. W. Hessian, of Connecticut, each had a score of 199. Hessian was declared the winner, having 98 on his last stage, the 100-yard fire, while Loring had 95 on his 1,000 yard strong.

NEGRO SPIRITED AWAY.

Near-Victim of Spartanburg Mob Taken to Columbia.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 19.—William Fair, the negro who was saved from lynching by a mob at Spartanburg jail last night by the firm stand taken by Sheriff William J. White, of that county, and a single deputy, was brought to Columbia this morning by the chief of police of Spartanburg and is lodged safely in the State penitentiary here, temporarily, at least.

The negro was spirited out of a rear door of the jail about 3 o'clock this morning while Sheriff White held back the mob at the front of the institution and hurried by train to this city.

Prison officials here expect to receive immediate instructions to keep the negro in the State prison until the date of his trial.

constitutionalists in control of various ports of entry on the northern frontier of Mexico, it was held by some government officials that the President could permit shipments without a repeal of the joint Congressional resolution of March 14th, 1912. Should a repeal be necessary, sentiment exists in the Senate and House in favor of it, though action will be deferred until the outcome of present negotiations.

Feeling was tense throughout official Washington over developments in the Mexican capital, but the denial sent by 'Charge O'Shaunessy stating that no ultimatum demanding recognition had been delivered relieved the tension materially.

Senators Keenly Interested.

Senators exhibited keen interest in the situation, and President Wilson gave inquirers what information he had.

Publication of the American note has been postponed to await the outcome of Mr. Lind's second efforts to reach an understanding with Provisional President Huerta.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, while authorizing no announcements on the situation, were keeping in close touch with developments tonight.

Messages came from many sources during the day endorsing a policy of peace.

"We want peace not war," wired Governor McConnell, of Idaho. "Endorse your policy."

GREENSBORO'S LIQUOR BILL.

Record of Shipments for the First Week in August.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 19.—Into Greensboro during the first week of August came 495 gallons of whiskey, 483 dozen bottles of beer and 1,733 pounds of malt, the latter said to be not intoxicating. These goods were received by about 100 people. Policeman Bray, who investigates the records at the express and freight offices, says that at least 85 per cent. of this came to the lowest class of negroes and nearly half of it to negro women. Every morning the officer goes to the express office and examines the records, then to the freight station to go over the books there. If any one violates the law by receiving more than a gallon a week, they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Mr. Bray says that it is about the same crowd every week that receives whiskey and beer, but a few alternate, not ordering more than once in every two, three or four weeks. Most of it comes to the loafers and criminally inclined.

Local police officers are on a campaign for enforcing laws relating to automobiles. There has been one arrest for failure to obtain license, and this will be followed by others. Several arrests for speeding have gone a long ways towards breaking up this violation of the law. A recent city ordinance forbids a machine passing a street car when it is discharging passengers and this is being rigidly enforced.

SUIT FOR CUSTODY OF CHILD.

Mrs. Lois Odum Seeks to Recover Child From Her Husband.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 19.—Judge Shaw, at chambers, this morning heard the affidavits and testimony in the habeas corpus matter of Mrs. Lois Odum against her husband, Ivy Odum, in which she seeks custody of their only child, about two years old, and now in possession of the father.

This is only a chapter in the fight that is being made by the wife upon the husband. She has had him arrested for an assault upon her and also for procuring an abortion to be committed upon her before she was married. These cases will come up at the next criminal term of court. Judge Shaw reserved his decision but intimated that he would give the father the child's custody and he has it pending his decision. The parents of Mr. Odum live in Goldsboro and the child will be carried there if the father wins the case.

War on the mosquito is being waged earnestly this week by a corps of officers and boys under the direction of Dr. J. T. J. Battle, voluntary assistant health officer. Dr. Battle has the young men very enthusiastic and they are cleaning up places where mosquitoes can breed.

DEPORTED AS UNDESIRABLE.

Foreigner Accused of Swindling His Countryman Must Leave Country.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Hans Bauder, a Swiss, accused of swindling his fellow countrymen out of $600,000 through the sale of mining stock, was one of sixteen persons who left here today for New York, where they will be deported as undesirable. They traveled in a special car chartered by the government immigration service.

Bauder lost his last chance to balk deportation when Circuit Judge Francis E. Baldwin yesterday denied him application for a writ of habeas corpus. The Swiss charged unfairness in the conduct of his trial before Dr. Percy L. Prentiss, chief immigration inspector at Chicago, and that his arrest here was the result of a conspiracy by representatives of the Swiss government in this city.

Cincinnati, Aug. 19.—Mike Schreck was compelled to quit at the end of the 13th round of a scheduled 15-round bout here tonight with Dick Gilbert. Both are local heavyweights.

LIKE FINDING MONEY.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. Offers Popular Medicine at Half-Price.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the popular druggists are making an offer that is just like finding money, for they are selling a regular 50 cent bottle of Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia at half price. In addition to this large discount they agree to return the money to any purchaser whom the specific does not cure.

It is quite unusual to be able to buy fifty cent pieces for a quarter, but that is what this offer really means, for it is only recently through the solicitation of Druggist J. Hicks Bunting that this medicine could be bought for less than fifty cents. They urged the proprietors to allow them to sell it at this reduced price for a little while, agreeing to sell a certain amount. The result has justified their good judgment for the sale has been something remarkable.

Anyone who suffers with headache, dyspepsia, dizziness, sour stomach, specks before the eyes, or any liver trouble, should take advantage of this opportunity, for Dr. Howard's specific will cure all these troubles. But if by any chance it should not, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. will return your money.

FOR POLLUTING STREAM.

Guilford Man Suing City for Allowing Sewer to Ruin Creek.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 19.—Superior Court is engaged in the trial of James D. Donnell vs. the City of Greensboro, and it looks as if the case will take the greater part of the week. The plaintiff seeks $2,000 damages for alleged injuries on account of the polluting of the water in North Buffalo creek by the emptying of the city's sewer line into the stream.

This is one of more than forty cases instituted against the city by farmers residing on Buffalo Creek. It is charged that the emptying of the sewer into the stream has so polluted the water that fish nor anything else except mosquitoes, can breed in the stream. It is said that the odors from the stream can be detected from a half mile to a mile, that is causes sickness and the water is unfit for use. Meadows that are overflowed by the stream have the grass rendered worthless.

The body of J. Giles Foushee, Sr., who died here Sunday morning, was carried to Sanford yesterday afternoon for burial. Three daughters from here and other relatives went from here to the funeral. The deceased was one of the city's oldest and most liked citizens. He was 85 years of age, a native of Chatham county, and a member of the Baptist church. The funeral was conducted by Rev. J. Clyde Turner, of the First Baptist church, who was in Raleigh, but went from there to Sanford to conduct the service.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 19.—The Oriental limited on the Great Northern was wrecked near Grank Forks, N. D. shortly after 11 o'clock tonight, according to a report received here.
